

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the Merchant Shipping Act, Short title. 1876.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same; and the said Acts and this Act may be cited collectively as the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1876. Construction of Act.

3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of October, 1876 (which day is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act); nevertheless any Orders in Council and general rules under this Act may be made at any time after the passing of this Act, but shall not come into operation before the commencement of this Act. Commencement of Act.

Unseaworthy Ships.

4. Every person who sends or attempts to send, or is party to sending or attempting to send a British ship to sea in such unseaworthy state that the life of any person is likely to be thereby endangered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, unless he proves that he used all reasonable means to insure her being sent to sea in a seaworthy state, or that her going to sea in such unseaworthy state was, under the circumstances, reasonable and justifiable,—and for the purpose of giving such proof he may give evidence in the same manner as any other witness. Sending unseaworthy ship to sea, a misdemeanour

Merchant Shipping Act.

Every master of a British ship who knowingly takes the same to sea in such unseaworthy state that the life of any person is likely to be thereby endangered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, unless he proves that her going to sea in such unseaworthy state was, under the circumstances, reasonable and justifiable,—and for the purpose of giving such proof he may give evidence in the same manner as any other witness.

A prosecution under this section shall not be instituted, except by or with the consent of the Board of Trade, or of the Governor of the British possession, in which such prosecution takes place.

A misdemeanour under this section shall not be punishable upon summary conviction.

Obligation of shipowner to crew with respect to use of reasonable efforts to secure seaworthiness.

5. In every contract of service, express or implied, between the owner of a ship and the master, or any seamen thereof, and in every instrument of apprenticeship whereby any person is bound to serve as an apprentice on board any ship, there shall be implied, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, an obligation on the owner of the ship, that the owner of the ship, and the master, and every agent charged with the loading of the ship, or the preparing thereof for sea, or the sending thereof to sea, shall use all reasonable means to insure the seaworthiness of the ship for the voyage at the time when the voyage commences, and to keep her in a seaworthy condition for the voyage, during the same: Provided that nothing in this section shall subject the owner of a ship to any liability by reason of the ship being sent to sea in an unseaworthy state where, owing to special circumstances, the so sending thereof to sea is reasonable and justifiable.

Power to detain unsafe ships, and procedure for such detention.

6. Where a British ship, being in any port of the United Kingdom, is, by reason of the defective condition of her hull, equipments or machinery, or by reason of overloading or improper loading, unfit to proceed to sea without serious danger to human life, having regard to the nature of the service for which she is intended, any such ship (hereinafter referred to as "unsafe,") may be provisionally detained for the purpose of being surveyed, and either finally detained or released, as follows:—

(1.) The Board of Trade, if they have reason to believe, on complaint or otherwise, that a British ship is unsafe, may provisionally order the detention of the ship for the purpose of being surveyed :

Merchant Shipping Act.

(2.) When a ship has been provisionally detained, there shall be forthwith served, on the master of the ship, a written statement of the grounds of her detention; and the Board of Trade may, if they think fit, appoint some competent person or persons to survey the ship and report thereon to the Board:

(3) The Board of Trade, on receiving the report, may either order the ship to be released or, if in their opinion the ship is unsafe, may order her to be finally detained, either absolutely or until the performance of such conditions with respect to the execution of repairs or alterations, or the unloading or reloading of cargo, as the Board think necessary for the protection of human life, and may, from time to time, vary or add to any such order:

(4.) Before the order for final detention is made, a copy of the report shall be served upon the master of the ship, and within seven days after such service the owner or master of the ship may appeal in the prescribed manner to the Court of Survey (hereinafter mentioned) for the port or district where the ship is detained:

(5.) Where a ship has been provisionally detained, the owner or master of the ship, at any time before the person appointed, under this section, to survey the ship makes such survey, may require that he shall be accompanied by such person as the owner or master may select out of the list of assessors for the Court of Survey (nominated as hereinafter mentioned); and in such case, if the surveyor and assessor agree, the Board of Trade shall cause the ship to be detained or released accordingly, but if they differ, the Board of Trade may act as if the requisition had not been made; and the owner and master shall have the like appeal touching the report of the surveyor as is before provided by this section:

(6.) Where a ship has been provisionally detained, the Board of Trade may, at any time, if they think it expedient, refer the matter to the Court of Survey for the port or district where the ship is detained:

(7.) The Board of Trade may, at any time, if satisfied that a ship detained under this Act is not unsafe, order her to be released either upon or without any conditions:

(8.) For the better execution of this section, the Board of Trade, with the consent of the Treasury, may, from time to time, appoint a sufficient number of fit officers, and may remove any of them:

Merchant Shipping Act.

(9.) Any officer so appointed (in this Act referred to as a detaining officer), shall have the same power as the Board of Trade have under this section, of provisionally ordering the detention of a ship for the purpose of being surveyed, and of appointing a person or persons to survey her; and if he thinks that a ship so detained by him is not unsafe, may order her to be released :

(10.) A detaining officer shall forthwith report to the Board of Trade any order made by him for the detention or release of a ship.

appeals.

7. A court of survey for a port or district shall consist of a judge sitting with two assessors :

The judge shall be such person as may be summoned for the case in accordance with the rules made under this Act out of a list (from time to time approved for the port or district, by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in this Act referred to as a Secretary of State), of wreck commissioners appointed under this Act, stipendiary or metropolitan police magistrates, judges of county courts, and other fit persons; but in any special case in which the Board of Trade think it expedient to appoint a wreck commissioner, the judge shall be such wreck commissioner :

The assessors shall be persons of nautical engineering or other special skill and experience; one of them shall be appointed by the Board of Trade, either generally or in each case, and the other shall be summoned in accordance with the rules under this Act by the registrar of the court, out of a list of persons periodically nominated for the purpose by the local marine board of the port,—or, if there is no such board, by a body of local shipowners or merchants approved for the purpose by a Secretary of State,—or, if there is no such list, shall be appointed by the judge; if a Secretary of State thinks fit at any time, on the recommendation of the government of any British possession or any foreign state, to add any person or persons to any such list, such person or persons shall, until otherwise directed by the Secretary of State, be added to such list, and if there is no such list, shall form such list.

The county court registrar, or such other fit person, as a Secretary of State may, from time to time, appoint, shall be the registrar of the court, and shall, on receiving notice of an appeal or a reference from the Board of Trade, immediately summon the court in the prescribed manner to meet forthwith :

8. With respect to the court of survey the following provisions shall have effect :—

Power and procedure of court of survey.

(1.) The case shall be heard in open court ;

(2.) The judge and each assessor may survey the ship, and shall have, for the purposes of this Act, all the powers of an inspector appointed by the Board of Trade under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854 ;

(3.) The judge may appoint any competent person or persons to survey the ship and report thereon to the court ;

(4.) The judge shall have same power as the Board of Trade have to order the ship to be released or finally detained, but unless one of the assessors concurs in an order for the detention of the ship, the ship shall be released :

(5.) The owner and master of the ship and any person appointed by the owner or master, and also any person appointed by the Board of Trade, may attend at any inspection or survey made in pursuance of this section :

(6.) The judge shall send to the Board of Trade the prescribed report, and each assessor shall either sign the report or report to the Board of Trade the reasons for his dissent.

9. The Lord Chancellor of Great Britain may, from time to time, (with the consent of the Treasury so far as relates to fees), make, and when made, revoke, alter and add to general rules to carry into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to a court of survey, and in particular with respect to the summoning of and procedure before the court, the requiring on an appeal security for costs and damages, the amount and application of fees, and the publication of the rules.

Rules for procedure of court of survey, &c

All such rules, while in force, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act, and the expression "prescribed" in the provisions of this Act relating to the detention of ships or court of survey means prescribed by such rules.

the Board of Trade shall be liable to pay to the owner of the ship his costs of and incidental to the detention and survey of the ship, and also compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him by reason of the detention or survey :

If a ship is finally detained under this Act, or if it appears that a ship provisionally detained was, at the time of such detention, unsafe within the meaning of this Act, the owner of the ship shall be liable to pay to the Board of Trade their costs of and incidental to the detention and survey of the ship ; and those costs shall, without prejudice to any other remedy, be recoverable as salvage is recoverable :

For the purposes of this Act the costs of and incidental to any proceeding before a court of survey, and a reasonable amount in respect of the remuneration of the surveyor or officer of the Board of Trade, shall be deemed to be part of the costs of the detention and survey of the ship ; and any dispute as to the amount of costs under this Act may be referred to one of the masters or registrars of the Supreme Court of Judicature, who, on request made to him for that purpose by the Board of Trade, shall ascertain and certify the proper amount of such costs :

An action for any costs or compensation payable by the Board of Trade under this section may be brought against the Secretary thereof by his official title as if he were a corporation sole ; and if the cause of action arises in Ireland, it shall be lawful for any of the superior courts of common law in Ireland, in which such action may be commenced to order that the summons or writ may be served on the Crown and Treasury Solicitor for Ireland, in such manner and on such terms, as to extension of time and otherwise, as to the court shall seem fit, and that such service shall be deemed good and sufficient service of such summons or writ upon the Secretary of the Board of Trade.

costs.

11. Where a complaint is made to the Board of Trade or a detaining officer that a British ship is unsafe, the board or officer may, if they or he think fit, require the complainant to give security to the satisfaction of the Board for the costs and compensation which he may become liable to pay as hereinafter mentioned :

Provided that where the complaint is made by one-fourth, being not less than three, of the seamen belonging to the ship, and is not in the opinion of the Board or officer, frivolous or vexatious, such security shall not be required ; and the Board or officer shall, if the complaint is made in sufficient

Where a ship is detained in consequence of any complaint, and the circumstances are such that the Board of Trade are liable under this Act to pay the owner of the ship any costs or compensation, the complainant shall be liable to pay to the Board of Trade all such costs and compensation as the Board incur, or are liable to pay in respect of the detention and survey of the ship.

12. (1.) A detaining officer shall have, for the purpose of his duties under this Act, the same powers as an inspector appointed by the Board of Trade under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854. Supplemental provisions as to detention of ship.

(2.) An order for the detention of a ship, provisional or final, and an order varying the same, shall be served as soon as may be on the master of the ship.

(3.) When a ship has been detained under this Act she shall not be released by reason of her British register being subsequently closed.

(4.) For the purposes of a survey of a ship under this Act any person authorized to make the same may go on board the ship and inspect the same and every part thereof, and the machinery, equipments and cargo, and may require the unloading or removal of any cargo, ballast, or tackle.

(5.) The provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, with respect to persons who wilfully impede an inspector, or disobey a requisition or order of an inspector, shall apply as if those provisions were herein enacted, with the substitution for the Inspector of any judge, assessor, officer or surveyor who, under this Act, has the same powers as an inspector, or has authority to survey a ship.

Foreign Ships, Overloading.

13. Where a foreign ship has taken on board all or part of her cargo, at a port in the United Kingdom, and is whilst at that port unsafe, by reason of overloading or improper loading, the provisions of this Act with respect to the detention of ships shall apply to that foreign ship as if she were a British ship, with the following modifications:—

Merchant Shipping Act.

(1.) A copy of the order for the provisional detention of the ship shall be forthwith served on the consular officer for the State to which the ship belongs at or nearest to the place where the ship is detained :

(2.) Where a ship has been previously detained, the consular officer, on the request of the owner or master of the ship, may require that the person appointed by the Board of Trade to survey the ship shall be accompanied by such person as the consular officer may select ; and, in such case, if the surveyor and such person agree, the Board of Trade shall cause the ship to be detained or released accordingly, but if they differ, the Board of Trade may act as if the requisition had not been made, and the owner and master shall have the appeal to the court of survey touching the report of the surveyor which is before provided by this Act ; and—

(3.) Where the owner or master of the ship appeals to the court of survey, the consular officer, on the request of such owner or master, may appoint any competent person, who shall be assessor in such case in lieu of the assessor who, if the ship were a British ship, would be appointed otherwise than by the Board of Trade.

In this section the expression “consular officer” means any consul-general, vice-consul, consular agent, or other officer recognized by a Secretary of State as a consular officer of a foreign State.

Appeal on Refusal of certain Certificates to Ships.

Appeal on refusal of certain certificates under Merchant Shipping and Passengers Acts.

14. Whereas, by section three hundred and nine of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and enactments amending the same, the owner of a passenger steamer as defined in that Act is required to cause the same to be surveyed by a shipwright surveyor and an engineer surveyor, and those surveyors are required to give declarations of certain particulars with respect to the sufficiency or conformity with the Act of the ship and equipments, and to the limits beyond which the ship is not fit to ply, and to the number of passengers which the ship is fit to carry, and of other particulars in the said section mentioned, and the Board of Trade, under section three hundred and twelve of the same Act, issue a certificate upon such declarations, and the passenger steamer cannot lawfully proceed to sea without obtaining such certificate ;

And whereas under sections eleven and fifty of the Passengers Act, 1855, and the enactments amending the same, same, a passenger ship within the meaning of those sections (in this Act referred to as an emigrant ship) cannot lawfully proceed to sea without a certificate of clearance from an emigration officer, or other officer in those sections mentioned, showing that all the requirements of the said sections and enactments have been complied with, and that the ship is, in the officer's opinion, seaworthy, and that the passengers and crew are in a fit state to proceed to sea, and otherwise as therein mentioned ;

Merchant Shipping Act.

And whereas by section thirty of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, provision is made for preventing a ship from proceeding to sea in certain cases without a certificate from a surveyor or person appointed by the Board of Trade to the effect that the ship is properly provided with lights, and with the means of making fog signals ;

And whereas it is expedient to give in the said cases such appeal as hereinafter mentioned : Be it therefore enacted that—

If a shipowner feels aggrieved,—

(1.) by a declaration of a shipwright surveyor or an engineer surveyor respecting a passenger steamer under the above-recited enactments, or by the refusal of a surveyor to give the said declaration ; or—

(2.) by the refusal of a certificate of clearance for an emigrant ship under the above-recited enactments ; or—

(3.) by the refusal of a certificate as to lights or fog signals under the above-recited enactment, -- the owner may appeal in the prescribed manner to the court of survey for the port or district where the ship for the time being is.

On such appeal the judge of the court of survey shall report to the Board of Trade on the question raised by the appeal, and the Board of Trade, when satisfied that the requirements of the report and the other provisions of the said enactments have been complied with, may,—

(1.) In the case of a passenger steamer, give their certificate under section three hundred and twelve of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and—

(2.) In the case of an emigrant ship, give or direct the emigration or other officer to give, a certificate of clearance under the above-mentioned enactments. and—

Merchant Shipping Act.

(3.) In the case of a refusal of a certificate as to lights or fog signals, give or direct a surveyor or other person appointed by them to give a certificate under section thirty of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862.

Subject to any order made by the judge of the court of survey, the costs of and incidental to an appeal under this section shall follow the event :

Subject as aforesaid, the provisions of this Act with respect to the court of survey and appeals thereto, so far as consistent with the tenor thereof, shall apply to the court of survey when acting under this section, and to appeals under this section.

Where the survey of a ship is made for the purpose of a declaration or certificate under the above-recited enactments, the person appointed to make the survey shall, if so required by the owner, be accompanied on the survey by some person appointed by the owner, and in such case, if the two said persons agree, there shall be no appeal to the court of survey in pursuance of this section.

Scientific Referees.

Reference in difficult cases to scientific persons.

15. If the Board of Trade are of opinion that an appeal under this Act involves a question of construction or design or of scientific difficulty or important principle, they may refer the matter to such one or more out of a list of scientific referees from time to time approved by a Secretary of State, as may appear to possess the special qualifications necessary for the particular case, and may be selected by agreement between the Board of Trade and the appellant, or in default of any such agreement by a Secretary of State, and thereupon the appeal shall be determined by the referee or referees, instead of by the court of survey.

The Board of Trade, if the appellant in any appeal so require and give security to the satisfaction of the Board to pay the costs of and incidental to the reference, shall refer that appeal to a referee or referees so selected as aforesaid.

The referee or referees shall have the same powers as a judge of the court of survey.

17. Where the legislature of any British possession provides for survey of and grant of certificates for passenger steamers, and the Board of Trade report to Her Majesty that they are satisfied that the certificates are to the like effect, and are granted after a like survey, and in such manner as to be equally efficient with the certificates granted for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council—

3. To impose such conditions and to make such regulations with respect to the said certificates, and to the use, delivery, and cancellation thereof, as to Her Majesty may seem fit, and to impose penalties not exceeding fifty pounds for the breach of such conditions and regulations.

18. In every case where a passenger certificate has been granted to any steamer by the Board of Trade under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and remains still in force, it shall not be requisite for the purposes of the employment of such steamer under the Passengers Acts that she shall be again surveyed in her hull and machinery in order to qualify her for service under the Passengers Act, 1855, and the Acts amending the same ; but for the purposes of employment under those Acts such Board of Trade certificate shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of the Passengers Acts with respect to such survey, and any further survey of the hull and machinery shall be dispensed with ; and so long as a steamship is an emigrant ship that is a passenger ship within the meaning of the Passengers Act, 1855, and the Acts amending the same, and the provisions contained in the said Passengers Acts as to the survey of her hull, machinery, and equipments have been complied with, she shall not be subject to the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Provision as to survey of foreign passenger steamer or emigrant ship.

19. Where a foreign ship is a passenger steamer subject to the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, or an emigrant ship subject to the Passengers Act, 1855, and the Acts amending the same, and the Board of Trade are satisfied, by the production of a foreign certificate of survey attested by a British consular officer at the port of survey, that such ship has been officially surveyed at a foreign port, and are satisfied that the requirements of the said Acts, or any of them, are proved by such survey to have been substantially complied with, the Board may, if they think fit, dispense with any further survey of the ship in respect of the requirements so complied with, and give or direct one of their officers to give a certificate, which shall have the same effect as if given upon survey under the said Acts or any of them: Provided that Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that this section shall not apply in the case of an official survey at any foreign port at which it appears to Her Majesty that corresponding provisions are not extended to British ships.

Power to modify Passenger Acts as to food, space and accommodation in emigrant ships.

20. It shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if satisfied that the food, space, accommodation, or any other particular or thing provided in an emigrant ship for any class of passengers is superior to the food, space, accommodation, or other particular or thing required by the Passengers Act, 1855, and the Acts amending the same, to exempt such ship from any of the requirements of those Acts with respect to food, space, or accommodation, or other particular or thing, in such manner and upon such conditions as the Board of Trade may think fit.

Provision of signals of distress, inextinguishable lights and life buoys in passenger steamers and emigrant ships.

21. Every sea-going passenger steamer, and every emigrant ship shall be provided to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade—

(1.) With means for making the signals of distress at night specified in the First Schedule to "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1878," or in any rules substituted therefor, including means of making flames on the ship which are inextinguishable in water, or such other means of making signals of distress as the Board of Trade may previously approve: and—

No cargo of which more than one-third consists of any kind of grain, corn, rice, paddy, pulse, seeds, nuts, or nut kernels, hereinafter referred to as "grain cargo," shall be carried on board any British ship, unless such grain cargo be contained in bags, sacks, or barrels, or secured from shifting by boards, bulkheads, or otherwise.

Stowage of cargo of grain, &c.

If the managing owner or master of any British ship, or any agent of such owner who is charged with the loading of the ship or the sending her to sea, knowingly allows any grain cargo or part of a grain cargo to be shipped therein for carriage, contrary to the provisions of this section, he shall for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding three hundred pounds, to be recovered upon summary conviction.

If any ship, British or foreign, other than home trade ships as defined by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, carries as deck cargo—that is to say, in any uncovered space upon deck or in any covered space not included in the cubical contents forming the ship's registered tonnage—timber, stores, or other goods, all dues payable on the ship's tonnage shall be payable as if there were added to the ship's registered tonnage the tonnage of the space occupied by such goods at the time at which such dues become payable.

Space occupied by deck cargoes to be liable to dues.

The space so occupied, shall be deemed to be the space limited by the area occupied by the goods, and by straight lines inclosing a rectangular space sufficient to include the goods.

The tonnage of such space shall be ascertained by an Officer of the Board of Trade or of Customs, in manner directed by sub-section four of section twenty-one of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and when so ascertained shall be entered by him in the ship's official log book, and also in a memorandum which he shall deliver to the master; and the master shall, when the said dues are demanded, produce such

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the twentieth day of May, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, between Her Majesty and the King of the Belgians, for the mutual extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following :—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Belgians, having judged it expedient, with a view to the more complete prevention of crime within their respective territories, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from the justice of their country, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up ; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries, to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say :—

ARTICLE I.

It is agreed that Her Britannic Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Belgians, shall, on requisition made in their name by their respective Diplomatic Agents, deliver up to each other reciprocally, any persons, (except as regards Great Britain, native born and naturalized subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, and, except as regards Belgium, those who are by birth or who may have become citizens of Belgium), who, being accused or convicted as principals or accessories, of any of the crimes hereinafter specified, committed within the territories of the requiring party, shall be found within the territories of the other party,—

In no case can the surrender be made unless the crime shall be punishable according to the laws in force in both countries with regard to extradition.

ARTICLE II.

In the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, other than the Colonies or foreign possessions of Her Majesty, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows :—

1. In the case of a person accused---

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Belgium, together with duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath or upon solemn affirmation before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him. The said Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order, under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive.

On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant, if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the fugitive shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Police Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London. If the evidence, to be then produced, shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in England, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender, sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal, and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians.

II. In the case of a person convicted—

The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place and date of his conviction. The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused, or convicted person to prison, to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus: if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant.

ARTICLE III.

In the dominions of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of His said Majesty, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

1 In the case of a person accused—

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Minister for Foreign Affairs, of His Majesty the King of the Belgians by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent of Her Britannic Majesty, accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Great Britain, together with duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath or upon solemn affirmation before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts and containing a description of the person claimed, and any other particulars which may serve to identify him.

The Minister for Foreign Affairs shall transmit the warrant of arrest, with the documents thereto annexed, to the Minister of Justice, who shall forward the same to the proper judicial authority, in order that the warrant of arrest may be put in course of execution by the Chamber of the Council (Chambre du Conseil) of the Court of First Instance of the place of residence of the accused, or of the place where he may be found.

The foreigner may claim to be provisionally set at liberty in any case in which a Belgian enjoys that right, and under the same conditions. The application shall be submitted to the Chamber of the Council (Chambre du Conseil).

Extradition Treaty with Belgium.

The Government will take the opinion of the Chamber of Indictments or Investigation (Chambre des Mises en Accusation) of the Court of Appeal, within whose jurisdiction the foreigner shall have been arrested.

The hearing of the case shall be public, unless the foreigner should demand that it should be with closed doors.

The public authorities and the foreigner shall be heard. The latter may obtain the assistance of Counsel.

Within a fortnight from the receipt of the documents, they shall be returned, with a reasoned opinion, to the Minister of Justice, who shall decide and may order that the accused be delivered to the person duly authorized on the part of the Government of Her Britannic Majesty.

II. In case of a person convicted—

The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the conviction or sentence of condemnation issued in original or in an authenticated copy, to be transmitted by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition, shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place and date of his conviction. The evidence to be produced shall be such as would, according to the Belgian laws, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

ARTICLE IV.

A fugitive criminal may, however, be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant, if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which he exercises jurisdiction: Provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall be discharged, as well in the United Kingdom as in Belgium, if within fourteen days a requisition shall not have been made for his surrender by the Diplomatic Agent of his country, in the manner directed by Articles II and III of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes specified in this Treaty, committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE V.

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal (or within two months after the decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom), he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

Extradition Treaty with Belgium.

ARTICLE VI.

When any person shall have been surrendered by either of the High Contracting parties to the other, such person shall not, until he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to the country from whence he was surrendered, be triable or tried for any offence committed in the other country prior to the surrender, other than the particular offence on account of which he was surrendered.

ARTICLE VII.

No accused or convicted person shall be surrendered, if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded shall be deemed by the party upon which it is made to be a political offence, or to be an act connected with (connexe à) such an offence, or if he prove, to the satisfaction of the Police Magistrate or of the Court before which he is brought on habeas corpus, or to the Secretary of State, that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VIII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath, issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other, if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken.

Provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath or solemn affirmation of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE IX.

The surrender shall not take place if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation, or the conviction, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the country where the accused shall have taken refuge.

ARTICLE X.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties, in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers, on account of other crimes committed upon their respective territories, his surrender shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date; unless any other arrangement should be made between the Governments which have claimed him, either on account of the gravity of the crimes committed or for any other reasons.

Extradition Treaty with Belgium.

ARTICLE XI.

If the individual claimed should be under prosecution, or condemned by the Courts of the country where he has taken refuge, his surrender may be deferred until he shall have been set at liberty in due course of law.

In case he should be proceeded against or detained in such country, on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, his surrender shall nevertheless take place, the injured party retaining his right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

ARTICLE XII.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the surrender shall be made. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to everything that may serve as proof of the crime. It shall take place even when the surrender, after having been ordered, shall be prevented from taking place by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are nevertheless reserved.

ARTICLE XIII.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons whom it may consent to surrender in pursuance of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XIV.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of the two High Contracting Parties.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in a Colony or foreign possession of either party, shall be made to the Governor or Chief Authority of such Colony or Possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the other in such Colony or Possession; or, if the fugitive has escaped from a Colony or foreign Possession of the Party on whose behalf the requisition is made, by the Governor or Chief Authority of such Colony or Possession.

Such requisition may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the respective Governors or Chief Authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to their Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign Possessions, for the surrender of Belgian criminals, who may there take refuge, on the basis, as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

Extradition Treaty with Belgium.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Treaty shall come into operation ten days after its publication in conformity with the laws of the respective countries.

After the Treaty shall so have been brought into operation, the Treaty concluded between the High Contracting Parties on the 31st July, 1872, shall be considered as cancelled, except as to any proceeding that may have already been taken or commenced in virtue thereof.

Either party may, at any time, terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Brussels as soon as may be within six weeks from the date of signature.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at Brussels, the twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that ships built, commissioned, equipped, or despatched in contravention of the said Act, may be condemned and forfeited by judgment of the Court of Admiralty; and that if the Secretary of State or Chief Executive Authority is satisfied that there is a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a ship within Our Dominions has been or is being built, commissioned, or equipped, contrary to the said Act, and is about to be taken beyond the limits of such dominions, or that a ship is about to be despatched contrary to the Act, such Secretary of State, or Chief Executive Authority, shall have power to issue a warrant authorizing the seizure and search of such ship and her detention until she has been either condemned or released by process of law ; And whereas certain powers of seizure and detention are conferred by the said Act on certain Local Authorities :

Now, in order that none of Our subjects may unwarily render themselves liable to the penalties imposed by the said Statute, We do hereby strictly command, that no person or persons whatsoever do commit any act, matter, or thing whatsoever contrary to the provisions of the said Statute, upon pain of the several penalties by the said Statute imposed, and of Our high displeasure.

And We do hereby further warn and admonish all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, to observe towards each of the aforesaid Sovereigns, their subjects and territories, and towards all belligerents whatsoever, with whom we are at peace, the duties of neutrality ; and to respect, in all and each of them, the exercise of those belligerent rights which We and Our Royal predecessors have always claimed to exercise.

And We hereby further warn all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, that if any of them shall presume, in contempt of this, Our Royal Proclamation, and of Our high displeasure, to do any acts in derogation of their duty as subjects of a neutral Sovereign in a war between other Sovereigns, or in violation or contravention of the law of nations in that behalf, as more especially by breaking or endeavouring to break, any blockade lawfully and actually established by or on behalf of either of the said Sovereigns, or by carrying officers, soldiers, despatches, arms, ammunition, military stores or materials, or any article or articles considered and deemed to be contraband of war according to the law or modern usages of nations, for the use or service of either of the said Sovereigns, that all persons so offending, together with their ships and goods, will rightfully incur and be justly liable to hostile capture, and to the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf.

And We do hereby give notice that all Our subjects and persons entitled to Our protection who may misconduct themselves in the premises will do so at their peril, and of their own wrong ; and that they will in nowise obtain any protection from Us against such capture, or such penalties as aforesaid, but will, on the contrary, incur Our high displeasure by such misconduct.

EXTRACT from the "London Gazette" Extraordinary of Monday, 30th April, 1877.

The Earl of Derby to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

FOREIGN OFFICE,

30th April, 1877.

MY LORDS,—Her Majesty being fully determined to observe the duties of neutrality during the existing state of war between the Emperor of all the Russias and the Emperor of the Ottomans, and being, moreover, resolved to prevent, as far as possible, the use of Her Majesty's harbours, ports, and coasts, and the waters within Her Majesty's territorial jurisdiction, in aid of the warlike purposes of either belligerent, has commanded me to communicate to your Lordships, for your guidance, the following rules, which are to be treated and enforced as Her Majesty's orders and directions :

Her Majesty is pleased further to command that these rules shall be put in force in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands, on and after the 5th of May instant, and in Her Majesty's territories and possessions beyond the seas, six days after the day when the Governor, or other chief authority of each of such territories or possessions respectively, shall have notified and published the same; stating in such notification that the said rules are to be obeyed by all persons within the same territories and possessions :—

1. During the continuance of the present state of war, all ships of war of either belligerent are prohibited from making use of any port or roadstead in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, or of any waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown, as a station or place of resort, for any warlike purpose, or for the purpose of obtaining any facilities of warlike equipment; and no ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted to sail out of or leave any port, roadstead, or waters subject to British jurisdiction, from which any vessel of the other belligerent (whether the same shall be a ship of war or a merchant ship) shall have previously departed, until after the expiration of, at least, twenty-four hours from the departure of such last-mentioned vessel beyond the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty.

2. If any ship of war of either belligerent shall, after the time when this Order shall be first notified and put in force in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands, and in the several Colonies and foreign possessions and dependencies of Her Majesty respectively, enter any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, either in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, such vessel shall be required to depart and to put to sea within twenty-four hours after her entrance into such port, roadstead, or waters, except in case of stress of weather, or of her requiring provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew or repairs,—in either of which cases the authorities of the port, or of the nearest port, as the case may be, shall require her to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of such period of twenty-four hours, without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what may be necessary for her immediate use: and no such vessel which may have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair shall continue in any such port, roadstead, or waters, for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs shall have been completed. Provided, nevertheless, that in all cases, in which there shall be any vessel (whether a ship of war or merchant ship) of the said belligerent parties in the same port, roadstead, or waters within the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, there shall be an interval of not less than twenty-four hours between the departure therefrom of any such vessel (whether a ship of war or merchant ship), of the one belligerent, and the subsequent departure therefrom of any ship of war of the other belligerent; and the time hereby limited for the departure of such ships of war respectively shall always, in case of necessity, be extended so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but no further or otherwise.

3. No ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted, while in any port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, to take in any supplies, except provisions and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew, and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country, or to some nearer destination; and no coal shall again be supplied to any such ship of war in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, without special permission, until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

4. Armed ships of either party are interdicted from carrying prizes made by them into the ports, harbours, roadsteads, or waters of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, or any of Her Majesty's Colonies or possessions abroad.

INTERIOR.

On a memorandum dated 21st April, 1876, from the Hon. the Minister of the Interior, stating, with reference to the question of the withdrawal of lands in the vicinity of the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway from ordinary sale and settlement, to be disposed of at a future period in connection with the construction of the Railway, that in view of avoiding possible difficulties with persons taking up land upon or in the vicinity of the line, as surveyed, to the westward of the Battle River, it is, in his opinion, expedient to extend the reserve authorized by the Order in Council, in that behalf, dated the 28th February last, and recommending therefore that the lands for 20 miles on each side of the line of the railway, from a point 20 miles westerly of the Battle River to Jasper House in the "Yellow Head" Pass through the Rocky Mountains, be withdrawn accordingly.

It was ordered accordingly on 22nd April, 1876.

Vide Canada Gazette, Vol., 9 p. 1588.

Interior.

On a memorandum dated 21st February, 1876, from the Hon. the Minister of the Interior, reporting * * * That the late Surveys for the Canadian Pacific Railway and the construction of the Telegraph line, have developed the fact that the crossing of the Battle River some 250 miles west of Fort Pelly, possesses special advantages as a site for a Town ;

That the Battle River is said to be 175 feet across, in low water, with a depth of 12 feet, and is believed to be navigable for many miles towards its source ;

That the soil in the vicinity is excellent, and the country generally eligible for settlement, and the general position is central and convenient for the Territories ;

That in view of the above, he recommends that a block four miles square, making in all a block of 16 square miles, be reserved at such a point in the vicinity of the junction of the Battle and the Saskatchewan Rivers as may be found most convenient for a Town site. * * * He further recommends that the lands for 20 miles on both sides of the telegraph line, as laid out, extending from a point 20 miles westerly of Fort Pelly to a point 20 miles westerly of the mouth of the Battle River be withdrawn for the present from sale or settlement, as an extension of the reserve already set apart in connection with the construction of the Pacific Railway.

It was ordered accordingly on 28th February, 1876.

Vide Canada Gazette, Vol. 9 p. 1538.

By Order in Council of 27th June, 1876, the following Regulations in respect to the division and settlement of the lands on the Rainy River were adopted, that is to say :---

1. That lots be laid out with a frontage of ten chains on the said river, and of such a depth as the Minister may deem expedient ; but, in no case, to exceed two miles.

2. That a settler be allowed to enter one of such ten chain lots as a homestead, and, if vacant, the adjoining one also, to which he shall have a preemption claim, the entries so made to operate in all respects as regards such two lots in the same manner as if they had been made upon regular quarter-sections under the homestead clauses of the said Act.

3. That each and every lot of land on the said river, claimed by virtue of settlement thereon previous to the survey, shall be made to conform to the terms of the first regulation as regards frontage and depth ; provided, however, that, in any case in which a claimant may have more than twenty chains wide on the river under cultivation, the two lots covering such width to be selected by him shall represent his homestead and preemption right, and he shall, at his option, have the privilege of purchasing the lot or lots on which any excess of improvement exists over and above that made on the twenty chains, at the rate of one dollar per acre, in cash, or shall abandon such additional improvement on condition of receiving therefor the reasonable value thereof from the person who may, with the approval of the Minister of the Interior, obtain an entry for such lot or lots.

29. A Red flag carried upon the head of an engine and tail of the train, by day, or a Red light by night, (in addition to the usual White light upon the head of the engine and Red light upon the tail of the train), denotes that an extra engine or train is following, having right of track over all other trains.

30. A Red signal, with a Green one carried in the manner above described, denotes that an extra engine or train, having right over all others, will come in an opposite direction.

31. White signals, carried in like manner, denote that an extra train is following, but will keep clear of all regular trains.

40. Whenever an accident occurs to a train, or a train is stopped on the line at any place other than a station, in consequence of which the line is obstructed, the Brakesmen must be sent each way at least 800 yards (or sixteen telegraph poles), or more if at or near a steep grade or curve, to stop an approaching engine or train ; and as the men proceed they must place on the rails, at a distance of every 200 yards, one of these torpedo signals ; and on arriving at the end of the above mentioned distance, they are to place two such signals on the line of rail.

41. In case of an Engine passing over one of these Signals, the train must be immediately stopped, and measures must at once be taken by the Conductor for protecting his train from any following train, by sending men back with torpedoes, which must be placed on the line every 200 yards to a distance of a quarter of a mile, the train afterwards proceeding slowly and cautiously to the place of obstruction.

42. Every Driver of an engine, not accompanied by a Conductor, must also use these signals in case of accident or obstruction, in the manner before mentioned.

43. When the line is again clear, the Conductor or Engine driver, as the case may be, must, before proceeding, remove all the signals from the rails.

44. In any of the above circumstances, and in the absence of either of the officers above mentioned, any Foreman of Works, or other servant of the Railway, is to observe the same rules to guard against danger.

He must make up and balance his accounts daily in the form prescribed, and remit his cash as called for by special instructions.

78. Any Station Master who shall render a statement of account which contains errors plainly traceable to his cash not having been properly counted and balanced, or to any want of care in taking an inventory of the freight in store, or shall enter remittances not actually made at the time indicated, is open to the serious charge of knowingly falsifying his accounts.

93. They must not check baggage until a short time previous to the departure of the train.

94. They are to request passengers to exhibit their tickets before checking their baggage, and to check the baggage accordingly.

95. All previous station numbers on baggage must be effaced.

96. Checks must only be given to passengers, and not to cabmen, or others, on their behalf.

97. Baggage, while in charge of the Railway officers, must be well guarded, or left in a secure place.

98. A record must be kept at stations of all baggage received from passengers and forwarded by train, giving the date, number of check, train, and destination, in every case.

99. A record must also be kept of all baggage received by trains and delivered to passengers, showing date, train and number of check in the same way.

100. Baggage for Flag stations must be numbered, but not checked.

101. On no account are passengers to be allowed to take checked baggage out of the possession of baggage masters, unless properly claimed.

103. A report must be sent to the General Baggage Agent, Moncton, of all baggage received, the checks and duplicates of which do not tally. The report must show the time of arrival, number of train, and the name of the station whence received.

104. When a passenger has lost his duplicate check, the baggage must not be given up unless he can describe the contents of such baggage, and pays 25 cents for the lost check.

105. A receipt must be taken from the owner for all baggage so delivered without the duplicate check being presented, as also for all baggage mischecked.

106. Station Baggage Masters, or Station Masters, will report immediately to the General Baggage Agent, Moncton, any baggage missing at their station, and will also report any baggage that may have remained unclaimed one week.

111. They must be very careful to keep their switches in good working order, and in proper position, and must immediately report all defects to the Station Master, who will advise the Superintendent and the nearest Station Foreman.

112. Before leaving his work, he must satisfy himself, by personal inspection, that the switches are properly set and locked for the main line, and that the signals are right. He must also carefully examine the switches and stationary signals every time he returns to work after being off duty.

113. He must be furnished, when on duty, with the following articles:

1 Hand Lamp, having three colours.

4 Flags,—two red, one white, and one green.

12 Fog Signals (torpedoes).

114. Switchmen shall not within fifteen minutes of a train being due, allow any engines or cars to pass on to or cross the main line, without the express order of the Station Master; and then he shall not open the switch until the proper danger signal is shown. He must not allow an engine to pass from one line to another, without first ascertaining that it is safe to do so.

115. Conductors, Engine-drivers, Track-masters and others who may have occasion to use switches, shall be held responsible for leaving them locked in their proper position, but nothing in this rule shall relieve the Station Master of his responsibility in regard to switches.

116. Conductors must be able to write a good, legible hand, to spell correctly, and be conversant with the elementary rules of arithmetic.

117. They shall wear a badge denoting their office.

118. They must be at the station from which they are about to start, at least half an hour before the appointed time for departure, and must see that the Baggage Master and Brakesmen are also on duty at the proper time.

|-----------------|------------------|
| 2 Shovels, | 1 Mop, |
| 1 Chamois Skin, | 1 Monkey Wrench, |
| 1 Whisk, | 1 Duster. |

120. Until the train has started, the Conductor shall be under the direction of the Station Master. Before leaving the station, he shall see that the cars are properly coupled; that there are proper brakes, and a sufficient number of Brakesmen on the train; that the signal lamps are properly trimmed and attached to the car, and, if required, lighted; that he has a proper supply of stores on board: that the alarm cord is properly secured and extended from the engine to the rear of the train; that the cars are in a proper state of cleanliness; and, if it be winter, that the stoves have been properly attended to, and the cars ventilated and properly warmed. If the cars are found to be in a dirty condition, he must report the fact to the Superintendent.

121. In forming a train, baggage, freight, or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of the passenger cars.

122. The rear car of every train must be a brake-car, and a man must, when the train is in motion, always be stationed on that car.

123. Conductors shall strictly obey all signals and special orders which they may receive from the officers in charge of stations.

124. They must not give the signal to start while passengers are getting on board, and should, when making it, stand near the front end of the first passenger car. They should afterwards pass to the platform of the last car, and look out for any signal that may be given them.

125. After the train has started it shall be under the conductor's entire charge and control. He is responsible for the safety of the train and all on board of it. He must see that the rules and regulations of the railway, as well as any special regulations that may be issued are strictly observed by both passengers and employes, and shall report any violations of them, and must himself take care to observe all such rules and regulations.

126. Always, when backing a train, there must be a man specially stationed upon the rear part of it to give due warning and prevent accident.

127. It shall be the conductor's duty to check the engine driver should the train be running at an unsafe speed, and to direct that the regular rate or speed prescribed in the time-table, or a slower rate if the track be in bad order, be observed as the case may require. Negligence or recklessness on the part of the engine-driver will be taken as proof of the inefficiency of the conductor, unless such conduct has been duly and distinctly reported on every occasion of its taking place. He shall at the same time treat the engine-driver with that consideration which is due to his very responsible duties, and will always advise with him in cases of difficulty.

128. In very extreme cases only can a train which has once left a station be allowed to return; and this proceeding must be accompanied with the greatest possible degree of caution. Before anything else is done, two men with red flags or lights must be sent fully half a mile in advance of the rear end of the train, to give warning to any train or trains that may be approaching from that direction, in order to guard against the possibility of collision. The train must not move until these two men have proceeded at least half a mile. Every other available measure must also be taken to notify trackmen and to stop any approaching engine. The officers of a train so situated are to assume in every case that a train is approaching and act accordingly. Conductors or other officers in charge of any trains that may receive such warning are responsible for protecting their own trains in the same manner.

129. When a train breaks down or is stopped or seriously delayed on the road similar precautions must be taken, should the case require it; to guard against being run into by any other train, proper use must be made of red flags, or lanterns and torpedoes. When assistance is required, or when the circumstances require it, messengers must be sent to the station master on either side, and the conductor must communicate direct, or through those officers, with the Superintendent.

130. He shall see that the brakemen and other train employés are kept at their posts so as to be ready for any emergency, that they are cleanly and attentive to their duties, and that their signals are ready for instant use.

131. The conductor shall, from time to time, during the journey, examine the wheels, brakes, springs, trucks and journals of the cars, and must see that they are kept in proper order.

132. The tail signal must also be examined at every station, and in the event of a train being brought to a stand on the main track, the conductor must take care that no person obstructs the rear view of it.

133. Whenever telegraphic despatches are sent, directing the movements of trains they must be repeated back by the receiving office to the sending office, and acknowledged by the persons to whom they may be addressed. Such acknowledgment shall always show how the message is understood by the parties receiving it, and such persons shall not start the train until they have found their construction of the message to be the true one. If doubt should arise they must take the safe course.

134. Verbal messages which in any way affect the movement of engines or trains must not under any circumstances be received through a third party, whatever confidence may be placed in the veracity of such person. All instructions not communicated personally or by telegraph to the individual for whom they are intended must be in writing. The responsibility of accident resulting from a misunderstanding of this sort, will rest upon the person acting without the proper authority.

135. The conductor must not allow persons to ride on the platform or outside of the cars, or in the baggage car, and must use all possible means to prevent passengers exposing themselves to danger.

136. In the event of any passenger being drunk or disorderly, to the annoyance of others, he must use all gentle means to stop the nuisance; failing which, he must exercise his authority, and restrain, or keep him in a separate place until his arrival at the next station, or at a station near to a police office or lock-up, where the passenger must be left, and may be, if considered expedient, delivered to the police and charged with the offence in the usual way.

137. Whenever a fare is collected in the cars the conductor must at once issue a ticket to the passenger, and enter the amount in his book. No excuse will be admitted for any departure from this rule.

138. Conductors must promptly deliver all letters, way-bills and despatches entrusted to their care.

139. They must not allow the sale of books, papers, refreshments, &c., in the cars, without permission from the Superintendent.

140. Freight trains must always keep out of the way of passenger trains. If from unavoidable circumstances the conductors of such trains find themselves running within ten minutes of the running time of a passenger train following them they must use all proper means to inform such passenger train of their position and prevent its running into them. If practicable, conductors of such freight trains must direct trackmen to put out signals and notify the passenger train conductor that a freight train is immediately ahead.

141. Conductors of freight trains must not take loaded cars without way-bills, nor way-bills without the proper cars.

142. Cars must not be taken beyond stations to which their contents may be destined, unless needed, as they may have to be brought back empty.

143. At stations where freight for several way stations is loaded into one car, particular attention should be given to have that loaded for the farthest station put in the car first, and so on in succession, until the freight for the nearest station to the point where it is being loaded is next the door of the car.

144. Conductors will be held personally responsible for the proper care of all goods or property entrusted to them, and will be careful to see that the same are delivered to the station masters according to the way-bills.

145. A conductor shall not permit live stock to be carried in closed cars. When there are horses on a train, unless the owner has sent a person in charge of them, he will see that they are carefully watered and moderately fed on the road; and the expense thus incurred shall be paid him at the end of his journey by the station master, who shall be reimbursed by the consignor or consignee, or owner, as the case may require.

146. It is his duty to make himself acquainted, as far as practicable, with the condition of the goods conveyed on his train; and when they are stowed so as to be liable to damage, to stow them differently, or, if that be not possible, to leave them, if necessary, at a station, to be sent on more securely stowed by another opportunity, reporting the same to the Superintendent. He shall see that no pilfering of the contents of the car takes place, and that the doors of loaded cars are sealed, and empty ones closed.

147. If from any cause it becomes necessary to leave freight where it does not belong, the Conductor shall note the fact on the way-bill, and give notice in writing to the Superintendent. He shall take all proper means to have the same forwarded to its destination without delay.

148. Irregular trains must be on a siding at least fifteen minutes before the regular trains are due, and wait till they have passed, unless otherwise ordered.

149. Conductors will duly call the attention of the Repairer of cars—or, in his absence, that of the Station Master—to any repairs required, or damage that may have been sustained by the cars, and in the latter case report the particulars to the Superintendent.

150. They must be careful, also, to report to the nearest Station Master and to the Division Superintendent any defect they may observe on the line.

151. Conductors must keep a diary of their proceedings, which must be ready for inspection at all times; and they shall make daily returns upon the proper form to be supplied them.

152. Where a Conductor may have had charge of a train for only part of a trip, he must insert in his return, upon the proper form, and over his own signature, the particulars of the same, which, with any money he may have collected, he will hand over to the officer relieving him, who will complete and forward the return, also signing it.

153. The Conductor shall enter in his diary all delays, casualties, or unusual occurrences, and report the facts to the Superintendent. He will also make a note of them in his return.

TRAIN BAGGAGE MASTERS.

154. Train Baggage Masters shall wear their proper badge of office, and must report any baggage they receive not properly marked and checked; they must be particular to see that the number of the station for which the baggage is intended is distinctly marked.

155. All checks and duplicates in charge of Train Baggage Masters must be compared by them before being used.

156. Checks must not be carried loose in the baggage car, but shall be kept in a box supplied for that purpose.

157. Baggage for Flag Stations shall be numbered, but not checked.

158. Train Baggage Masters shall keep a proper account, in books provided for the purpose, of all baggage checked or unchecked, showing stations at which the baggage is received and delivered.

159. They shall not allow persons, except those working the train, to ride in the baggage car, unless by direction of the Conductor.

160. They shall not leave the station, at the end of the journey, until the baggage has been claimed or properly disposed of.

161. They shall obey such other instructions in regard to baggage, and perform such other duty, as may be required of them.

BRAKESMEN.

162. Brakesmen must wear their proper badge of office, and while the train is in motion, must be near their brakes, which, when necessary, they will skilfully apply.

163. Passenger car brakes must always be eased off, and not permitted suddenly to escape, so that no disagreeable jarring may be felt by the passengers.

164. The alarm cord must not on any account be removed at the end of a journey until the train has been brought to a stand.

165. Brakesmen shall perform such other duties as may be required of them.

Public Works.

166. Freight Conductors and Train Baggage Masters shall act as Brakesmen when not engaged with their other duties.

168. The Engine Driver, when at a station, shall be subject to the orders of the Station Master.

169. He shall be guided by instructions from the Conductor as to when to start and stop the train.

170. He must not proceed after sunset, unless the proper lights are exhibited on his engine.

Public Works.

171. No special train or engine shall leave any station without the authority of the Superintendent.

172. Every Engine Driver and Fireman must provide himself with a good watch, and compare the time with Conductors and Drivers of other trains they meet as well as with Station clocks, reporting all differences to the Superintendent

173. They must pay immediate attention to all signals, whether the cause for giving them be known or not.

174. The Driver must be in attendance at the station at least half an hour, and the Fireman at least forty-five minutes, before the appointed time for starting the train. He must see that the engine is coupled, at least ten minutes before the time for starting—that it is in proper working order, sufficiently supplied with fuel, and water, and properly oiled—that the alarm cord is attached to the gong or whistle, and that the lamps, and signals, are in a fit state for use. Before taking charge of the engine, he and the Fireman must sign their names in the appearance book, kept by the Locomotive Foreman.

175. Conductors and Drivers of Trains supplied with Air Brakes, are responsible for seeing that such are in perfect working order before starting from terminal stations : this also applies to the ordinary Brakes and running gear on all cars.

176. Every Engine Driver shall have with him, at all times, the following tools :—

- 2 Jack Screws.
- 1 Set Hand Wrenches.
- 3 Oil Cans (a full set).

for which he shall be held responsible, and any party found guilty of destroying them shall be fined or dismissed.

177. The Engine Driver shall not allow any persons, except the Superintendents and Trackmasters, to ride on his engine or tender, without due authority.

178. He must not start his train until the bell be rung, and he receive the signal from the Conductor; he must, invariably, start carefully, without jerking, and see that he has the whole of his train; he must run the train as nearly to time as possible, arriving at the Stations neither too late, nor too soon. He must not shut off steam suddenly, so as to cause concussion of the cars, unless in case of danger.

179. If a train becomes separated when in motion care must be taken not to stop the portion in front before the after-part has stopped, and the men on such detached part must apply their brakes in time to prevent collision with the cars in front.

180. No engine shall run tender or train foremost, unless from unavoidable necessity, or by order of the Superintendent.

181. The Driver shall stand by the hand-gear, and keep a good look-out. The Fireman also must be on the look-out when not engaged in other duties.

182. Before passing switches, he must be careful to see that the targets are correctly set.

183. An Engine Driver on duty must not leave his engine except in cases of great necessity, on which occasions he must place it in charge of the Fireman, and notify the nearest Locomotive Foreman of the fact in order that a competent person may be sent to take his place. On no account shall both leave it until it is given in charge to the party authorized to receive it.

184. Engine Drivers are required to run slowly and carefully over rough or bad track, and round curves, or through cuttings. The Track-masters are authorized, when it is found necessary, to prescribe rates of speed, faster than which an engine must not be driven over the parts of the roads indicated, and they are instructed to report violations of their instructions in this respect.

185. In running behind another train, the Driver must so run as to allow the leading train to be not less than two miles in advance, and, on approaching a station, and entering, or running round curves, he must exercise great caution so as to avoid the possibility of a collision. No excuse as to being deceived about the distance will be received for neglect of this rule. The responsibility of a collision will rest upon the Conductor and Engine Driver of the rear train.

186. When approaching stations, crossings, bridges and viaducts, and when passing wood piles, all trains are required to run at reduced speed and with extreme caution, the dampers of the engines being closed.

187. When trains have to pass each other, the train having the right to the road shall occupy the main track.

188. Engine Drivers are to take care that the whistle be sounded 800 yards before reaching every level crossing of a public road, and that the bell be rung 600 yards before reaching such crossing, and until the crossing be passed. The bell, and whistle, are also to be sounded, when approaching a cutting, station or junction. During foggy weather also, the bell must be sounded at proper intervals.

189. They must never allow themselves to be governed by any information they may receive as to where the train ahead will stop for fuel or other cause, but must always be prepared to stop short of the Station. They should invariably run on the supposition that a train may be found out of place at a station.

190. In bringing up his train, the driver must pay particular attention to the state of the weather, and the condition of the rails, as well as to the length of the train, and these circumstances must have due weight in determining him when to shut off the steam. Stations must not be entered so rapidly as to require a violent application of the brakes, or to render necessary the sounding of the signal whistle. He must report every instance, of overshooting a station, to the Superintendent.

191. Unless he himself is in the cab of the engine at the time, and directing its movements, he must not allow the Fireman to shunt cars, or move the engine; cars must not be shunted, at so great a speed, as to endanger the lives of men employed in coupling, or in any way injure the property of the Railway.

192. An engine or train shall not pass from a Branch on to the Main line until the proper signals are given.

193. No Engine Driver, when acting without a Conductor, shall, without the express permission of the Station Master, move his engine, on any pretence, from any siding on to the main line

194. When there is an unavoidable necessity, from an accident, or other special cause, for an engine to stop on the main line, the Engine Driver must send a man each way with signals, to the distance of 800 yards (or sixteen telegraph poles), or more, if at or near a steep grade, or curve, in order to protect the train or engine.

195. Engine Drivers shall not, except in case of accident or sudden illness, change engines on the journey, without permission.

196. They must not allow fuel or waste to be thrown from the engine or tender, while in motion

197. Engine Drivers must guard against killing stock. Should any animal be injured by the engine, the Engine Driver must report the same in writing, to the Superintendent, stating the facts of the case. Any Engine Driver who neglects to make such report immediately, will be held responsible for all damages.

198. Should a fire occur on a train, it must be stopped, and the proper measures at once be taken for protecting the train. The burning car, or cars must be detached with as little delay as possible. No attempt must be made to run to a tank, if it be more than three hundred yards distant, as such a proceeding is likely to cause the fire to spread.

199. In case of doubt or difficulty, Engine Drivers and Conductors must consult and advise with each other, as they will be held equally responsible for any violation of the rules, through forgetfulness, negligence, misapprehension, or any other cause. In all cases of doubt, the safe side must be taken, safety being the first consideration.

Public Works.

200. Should a Conductor be disabled, the Engine Driver will have full charge of, and be held responsible for the safety of the train until another officer takes charge. In such case, he shall observe the rules laid down for the guidance of Conductors.

201. Engine Drivers, when on the line, will obey the direct orders of the Superintendent, whether the same shall be communicated verbally, by telegraph, or in writing; and in all cases where a message directing the train or engine to proceed cautiously, or at a given rate of speed, over any part of the Railway, or any bridge or viaduct, is given to the Conductor of any train, he shall at once hand the same to the Engine Driver, and call his attention to the contents thereof; and the Engine Driver shall retain it in his possession. If any Engine Driver shall, after the receipt of such message, incautiously or at a greater rate of speed than that named, drive his engine over the portion of the Railway, bridge, or viaduct named, he shall at once be dismissed from the service; and any Conductor failing to obey the requirements of this order will receive like punishment.

202. Every Engine Driver must carefully examine his engine after each journey, and he must immediately report to the Locomotive Foreman, and enter in the book that is kept for that purpose, any defect or deficiency in his engine. He must also report to the Superintendent and to the Station Master at the nearest station, any accident, neglect or irregularity that may have occurred on the journey.

203. Engine Drivers must keep diaries, and make returns to the Locomotive Department, as may be required.

FIREMEN.

204. Firemen are subject to the orders of the Engine Drivers, while on their engines.

205. They will keep the engine cleaned and properly oiled, and assist the Engine Driver, as may be required.

MAINTENANCE OF WAY DEPARTMENT.

206. The Trackmaster, under the direction of the Engineer, who shall be responsible to the General Superintendent—shall have the charge and supervision of all Repairmen in his Division, and be held responsible for the faithful performance by them of their duty.

207. When materials are wanted for repairs, the Trackmaster on receiving a requisition from the Foreman properly filled in, will countersign it if the materials are known to be required, and forward it to the Engineer.

208. Before any Foreman or Labourer is engaged by the Trackmaster, he must be made to understand that the wilful transgression of any of these rules—insubordination, drunkenness, being found off his work during working hours, or the commission or omission of any act whereby the passage of trains or engines is endangered—will be punished by dismissal.

Public Works.

209. In every gang of track-labourers there must be a Foreman ; and the Trackmaster will be held responsible that every Foreman is provided with a copy of the Regulations, a copy of the current Time-Table, and the proper signal flags and lamps, and twelve torpedoes or fog signals ; also that each Foreman is furnished with an accurate gauge for gauging the line of track, and with all other necessary materials and implements.

210. Each Foreman shall constantly carry with him a copy of these Rules and Regulations while on duty, and must read and explain them to every man engaged under him, and must produce them, when required to do so by any of the principal officers of the Railway. He shall be responsible for the men under his charge, and for the proper execution of the work assigned to them, and shall have a list of the names and places of abode of all men employed under him, so that in case of accident or other emergency he may be enabled to summon them immediately.

211. Each Foreman or other employé, selected by the Trackmaster, must walk over his section every morning, and oftener, should it be necessary for him to do so, as in the case of violent storms. Foremen must see that all joints are properly spiked and bolted, and the joint ties well packed up, and all other things appertaining to the road secured before the passage of the first train.

212. During heavy storms of rain, snow or hail, whereby the works may be liable to sudden injury, Foremen must be on duty, and immediately after the abatement of the storm, or if necessary during its continuance, they are required to go over their sections with danger signals to ascertain if the Track is safe for the passage of trains.

213. Track repairers must be particular in watching each train, as it passes, to see whether any notices are dropped off the train, or flags or lamps are exhibited upon the engine, and rear of the train, giving notice of an extra train.

214. The Green signal indicates caution, and is to be used when it is necessary to slacken the speed of an approaching train ; the Red signal indicates danger, and is to be used when necessary to stop the Train, and such signals must be sent back for a distance of twenty (20) telegraph poles from the place they are meant to protect, and must be waved across the track.

215. Whenever it is necessary to displace any part of the track, or in case of any slip, or failure, of any portion of the works, or in the event of any car being required for temporary use on the line, or if, from any other cause, the track is not safe, the Red signal must be conspicuously exhibited at a distance of not less than twenty (20) telegraph poles each way, even if no train or engine is expected, and a torpedo must be placed outside the Red signal a further distance of two (2) telegraph poles. No hand car or lorry must be used on the track, or work done, to impede the transit of trains during a fog or snow-storm, or within fifteen minutes of the time of a train being due.

216. When any part of the track is out of repair, so as to make it necessary for a train to proceed cautiously, a signal must be sent twenty (20) telegraph poles in the direction whence a train is expected, and kept there until it passes, or until the track is made safe.

Public Works.

217. The track must not, in any case, be displaced for the purpose of putting in cattle guards, cross drains or culverts, unless by express order of the Trackmaster. The track must not be rendered unsafe, by any operation, during the day, or night, or upon Sunday, until notice shall have been given by the Trackmaster to the Superintendent, and permission obtained to use the track.

218. No rails must be taken up, nor must the track be otherwise disturbed, in such a manner as to render it unsafe, within twenty minutes of the time of a train being due, nor until it has passed. All such work must be done between the regular running hours.

219. In raising the track and packing the ballast, no lift must be greater than two inches in twenty-four feet, and both rails must be raised equally and at the same time; and in all cases, when practicable, the lift must be made in the direction in which the first train due approaches.

220. The Trackmaster must see that safety blocks are put down on all sidings diverging from the main track, at a proper distance therefrom.

221. The Foreman of each Section, under the direction of the Trackmaster, is held responsible for the safe keeping of all sleepers, rails, chairs, plates, bolts, tools and implements of every kind pertaining to the track not in special charge of the keeper, and the Trackmaster must immediately report to the Engineer any losses or destruction of such property.

222. The Foreman must report, in writing, to the Trackmaster, every case in which any of the signals are disregarded by an Engine driver.

223. All persons walking along the line, who are not in the Railway service, must be warned off; and, in case of non-compliance, their names ascertained and reported to the Trackmaster, or they must be placed under arrest, as the exigencies of the case seem to require.

224. Animals found straying within the railway fence must be immediately driven off. Section men will close all gates found open. Owners and occupiers of property adjacent to the Railway must keep properly shut all gates at private crossings: in case of accident through negligence on their part, or on the part of their servants, in leaving them open, they will be held liable for the consequences.

225. When the lorries or hand cars are not in use, they must be lifted off the track, and the wheels secured by a chain and lock. Track lorries must only be used to convey materials for the line; they must never be attached to a train.

226. All surface crossings must be closely looked after, and foremen must see that the planking is securely spiked down. Any temporary injury to any of the telegraph poles or wires shall be repaired as far as practicable, and intelligence of the damage immediately conveyed to the nearest Station Master. If not a telegraph station, the Agent shall write to the telegraph station, giving particulars.

227. Track foremen must be particular in cutting down trees which are too near the telegraph wires, and when the WIRES ARE TOUCHING EACH OTHER SEPARATE THEM, fix them up and keep them from wet.

228. In case of the water supply at any Station being short, or the frog of a siding being out for repair, or any other matter affecting the movement of Traffic, Foremen must report by telegraph, at once, to the Bulletin Boards on their divisions, and to the Trackmaster as well

Public Works.

229. All articles found on the track must be properly sent to the Stationmaster of the nearest Station.

By Order in Council of the 7th day of September, 1876, His Honour the Deputy of the Governor General in Council, ordered that the toll of one-half cent, authorized by Order in Council, dated 3rd November, 1873, to be levied on logs passing through the Dumoine Slide be increased to one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) cents per log.

CHAP. 2.

An Act respecting the Act further securing the Independence of Parliament.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

WHEREAS several persons who have, since the passing of the Act thirty-one Victoria, chapter twenty-five, intituled "An Act further securing the Independence of Parliament," been elected as members of the House of Commons, acting in the bonâ fide belief that they were or continued to be qualified and capable of sitting and voting as members thereof, may have by sitting or voting therein unwittingly rendered themselves liable to pecuniary penalties or forfeitures under the provisions of the said Act; and whereas it is proper to relieve such persons from such pecuniary penalties or forfeitures: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.
31 V. c. 25.

1. Any person who has, at any time since the passing of the said Act, been elected a member of the House of Commons, and who, acting under the bonâ fide belief that he was or continued to be qualified and capable of sitting or voting as a member thereof, has sat or voted therein, shall be and is hereby indemnified, exonerated, freed and discharged from all pecuniary penalties or forfeitures whatsoever (if any) which may have been incurred by him by reason of having so sat or voted at any time up to the end of the present Session of Parliament.

Indemnification for having sat or voted under the bonâ fide belief of qualification.

2. This Act may be pleaded as a bar and discharge to any action, suit or proceeding pending or which may be brought against any such person, for any such pecuniary penalty or forfeiture as aforesaid.

This Act to be a bar to suits for penalty.

3. Nothing in this Act contained shall be held in any wise to indemnify, exonerate, free or discharge any person from any pecuniary penalty or forfeiture, if any, to which he may render himself liable by sitting or voting in the House of Commons at any time after the end of the present Session of Parliament.

Not to apply to offences committed after present Session.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall be held to affect any subsisting disqualification or incapacity to sit or vote in the House of Commons, or to validate any void election thereto, or to affect the vacation of any seat therein, or in any wise to interfere with the operation of the fifth section of the said Act.

Nor to affect any then subsisting disqualification.

CHAP. 3.

An Act respecting the Great Seals of the Provinces of Canada, other than Ontario and Quebec.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the power of appointing and altering the Great Seals of the Provinces other than Ontario and Quebec, and also as to the validity of instruments sealed with the Seal heretofore used as the Great Seal of the Province of Nova Scotia; and whereas it is right that all the Provinces should be upon the same footing with respect to their Great Seals; And whereas the Legislature of the Province of Nova Scotia has passed an Act empowering the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to alter the Great Seal, and also an Act validating all instruments sealed with the seal heretofore used as the Great Seal; and whereas the Legislative Council and Assembly of Nova Scotia have passed Addresses to Her Majesty, praying for legislation in the Parliament of the United Kingdom to the same intent; and whereas it is expedient, so far as the Parliament of Canada may have power to act in the premises, to remove the said doubts: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts and declares as follows:—

Lieutenant Governors in Council may appoint and alter Great Seals.

Instruments bearing former Great
Seal of Nova Scotia valid.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor of each Province in Council has the power of appointing and of altering from time to time the Great Seal of the Province.

2. All instruments sealed with the seal heretofore used as the Great Seal of the Province of Nova Scotia are hereby declared to have been and to be legal and valid, notwithstanding any doubt which may exist as to such seal being the Great Seal.

CHAP. 4.

An Act to extend to the Province of Prince Edward Island, certain Criminal Laws now in force in other Provinces of Canada.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The Acts of the Parliament of Canada passed in former Sessions of the said Parliament, and mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, are and each of them is hereby extended to and shall have force and effect of law within the Province of Prince Edward Island, save and except so far only as any provision of any such Act may be therein declared to be applicable to one or more only of the Provinces composing the Dominion at the time of the passing of such Act and mentioned therein.

Acts in the Schedule extended to Prince Edward Island.

2. In case any of the said Acts, or any enactment or provision therein, has force and effect in relation to one of the Provinces comprising the Dominion at the time of its passing, in a sense peculiar to that Province and different from the sense in which it has force and effect in relation to all the said Provinces as a whole, such Act, enactment or provision shall have force and effect within and in relation to the said Province of Prince Edward Island, in the last mentioned sense only.

Such Acts to have effect in Prince Edward Island as in all the Provinces of Canada as a whole.

3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as a declaration that any of the said Acts or any part thereof, had not, or has not or would not have, without the passing of this Act, force or effect in or in relation to the Province of Prince Edward Island.

As to effect of the passing of this Act.

4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to give a retroactive effect to any of the Acts hereby extended to the said Province, or to any enactment or provision therein, so as to make any act done before it comes into force a crime or offence if it would not be so without this Act, or to alter the punishment for any crime or offence committed before it comes into force; but the trial for such crime or offence, and the procedure respecting it after the said time, shall be had or continued under the provisions of the Acts hereby extended in and by the court, magistrate or tribunal, in or before which the case may be pending: and the Supreme Court of the said Province, and other courts, or magistrates and tribunals now existing or hereafter to be constituted by the Acts extended not to have a retroactive effect.

Abatement of ad valorem duties on goods imported by water and damaged.

23. If any goods imported by water, on which ad valorem duties are payable, receive any damage by water or otherwise during the course of the voyage, after such goods have been laden or shipped, and before the same are unshipped or discharged from the vessel in which they are imported into Canada, or from any vessel or craft into which the said goods have been transhipped for the purpose of being conveyed to the port of destination, so that the owner thereof is prejudiced in the sale of such goods,—then if the claim for abatement be made in due form at the first examination of the goods after landing, and while they are in the custody of the Crown, the Collector or proper officer of the Customs at the place where the same are landed, being satisfied of the the necessary facts, may offer to make such abatement of the duties otherwise payable on such goods, as he may think reasonable and just; but if the owner or consignee of the goods be not satisfied with the abatement so offered, then the Collector may choose three disinterested merchants, experienced in the value of such goods, who, or any two of them, upon viewing the same, shall certify what damage such goods have received, or how much the same are lessened in their true value by such damage, in relation to the duties imposed on them; and thereupon such officer shall make or repay a proportionate allowance to the importer, by way of abatement of the duties due or payable, or which have been actually paid upon the same: and the said merchants shall be allowed in remuneration for such valuation, at the discretion of such officer, a sum of not less than two dollars nor more than ten dollars for each merchant; and such remuneration shall be paid by the owner or owners of such goods.

Return of duties on goods lost before landing,—on what conditions to be obtained.

25. If any vessel having received damage puts into a port in Canada to which she is not bound, having dutiable goods on board, which it may be necessary to land for the purpose of repairing the vessel in order to enable her to proceed on her voyage, the Collector, upon application of the master or agent, may permit such goods to be unladen and deposited in a warehouse in the custody of the Collector; and the Collector shall cause to be taken an exact account of the packages and contents; and entry of the goods shall then be made by the master or agent as hereinbefore directed, and they shall remain in the custody of the Collector until the vessel is ready for sea,—when, upon payment of storage and the reasonable charges of unloading and storing, the Collector shall deliver up the same to the master or agent to be exported or carried coastwise as the case may be, under the same security and regulations as if such goods had been imported in the usual manner, and and without payment of duty: no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this section who shall have sold any of such goods, except such as it may have been necessary to sell to defray the expense of repairs and charges of the vessel, or as may have been authorized by the Collector of Customs; and if goods are sold for payment of repairs and charges they shall be subject to duty, and shall be warehoused, or the duties thereon paid by the purchaser.

Goods wrecked or derelict, &c.

26. Goods derelict, flotsam, jetsam, or wreck, or landed or saved from any vessel wrecked, stranded, or lost, brought or coming into Canada, shall be subject to the same duties as goods of the like kind imported are subject to; and, if of such sort as are entitled to allowance for damage, such allowance shall be made under the direction of the Minister of Customs; if any person has in his possession, in port or on land, any such goods, the same being dutiable, and does not give notice thereof to the nearest officer of Customs without unnecessary delay, or does not, on demand, pay the duties thereon or deliver the same to the proper officer, he shall forfeit two hundred dollars, and the goods be forfeited: and if any person removes or alters in quantity or quality, any such goods, or unnecessarily opens or alters any package thereof, or abets any such act before the goods are deposited in a warehouse under the custody of the Customs officers, he shall forfeit two hundred dollars: and if the duties on such goods are not paid within eighteen months from the time when the same were so deposited, the same may be sold in like manner, and for the same purposes as goods imported may in such default be sold; if they are sold for more than enough to pay the duty, the surplus shall be paid over to the person entitled to receive it.

As to deduction for charges for packing, straw, cording, &c.

31. In all cases where any duty is imposed on any goods imported into Canada, ad valorem, or according to the value of such goods, such value shall be understood to be the fair market value thereof in the principal markets of the country whence the same were exported directly to Canada ; and every appraiser, and every Collector, when acting as such, shall, by all reasonable ways and means in his power, ascertain the fair market value, as aforesaid, of any goods to be appraised by him, and estimate and appraise the value for duty of such goods, at the fair market value, as aforesaid :

2. Nevertheless, by any order of the Governor in Council, it may be provided that in the cases and on the conditions to be mentioned in such order, and while the same is in force, goods bonâ fide exported to Canada from any country, but passing in transitu through another country, shall be valued for duty as if they were imported directly from such first-mentioned country.

32. The fair market value for duty, of goods imported into Canada, shall be the fair market value of such goods in the usual and ordinary commercial acceptance of the term, at the usual and ordinary credit, and not the cash value of such goods, except in cases in which the article imported is, by universal usage, considered and known to be a cash article, and so bonâ fide paid for in all transactions in relation to such article ; and all invoices representing cash values, except in the special cases hereinabove referred to, shall be subject to such additions as to the Collector or appraiser of the port at which they are presented may appear just and reasonable, to bring up the amount to the true and fair market value, as required by this section :

2. No deduction from the value of goods contained in any invoice shall be allowed on account of the assumed value of a package or packages, where no charge for such package or packages has been made in such invoice ; and where such charge is made it shall be the duty of the Customs officer to see that the charge is fair and reasonable, and represents no more than the original cost thereof ;

3. No deduction from the value of goods in any invoice shall be made on account of charges for packing, or for straw, twine, cord, paper, cording, wiring or cutting, or for any expense incurred or said to have been incurred in the preparation and packing of goods for shipment :

4. No discount for cash shall in any case be allowed, in deduction of the fair market value, as above defined, nor shall goods be allowed to entry at cash values, except where it is satisfactorily shown to the Collector that such goods can be purchased only for cash, and then it shall form a part of the affidavit of the importer that the value of such goods was paid at the time of purchase.

thereof, and takes the oath in such cases provided in the schedule to this Act,—then the Collector or officer may cause such goods to be landed on a bill of sight for the packages and parcels thereof, by the best description that can be given, and to be seen and examined by such person and at his expense, in the presence of the Collector or principal officer, or of such other officer of the Customs as shall be appointed by the said Collector or other proper officer, and to be delivered to such person, on his depositing in the hands of the Collector or officer a sum of money fully sufficient in the judgment of the Collector or officer to pay the duties thereon; and if the importer does not complete a perfect entry within the time appointed by the Collector the money so deposited shall be taken and held to be the duty accruing on such goods, and shall be dealt with and accounted for accordingly :

2. Such sight entry may be made as aforesaid and the goods may be delivered if such importer or person as aforesaid makes oath or affirms that such invoice has not been, and cannot be produced, and pays to the Collector or proper officer aforesaid a sum of money sufficient in the judgment of such Collector or officer to pay the duties on such goods, and such sum shall then be held to be the amount of the said duties ;

3. But, except only in cases where it is otherwise provided herein or by regulation of the Governor in Council, no entry shall be deemed perfect unless a sufficient invoice of the goods to be entered, attested as hereinafter required, has been produced to the Collector.

36. With the bill of entry of any goods, there shall be produced and delivered to and left with the Collector an invoice of the goods, attested by the oath of the owner, and if the owner be not the person entering such goods, then verified also by the oath of the importer or consignee, or (subject to the provision hereinafter made) other person, who may lawfully make such entry and verify such invoice, in the form or to the effect of the oath or oaths provided for the case in the schedule hereunto annexed,—which oath or oaths shall be written or printed, or partly written or partly printed on such invoice, or on the bill of entry, (as the case may be,) or shall be annexed thereto, and shall in either case distinctly refer to such invoice, so that there can be no doubt as to its being the invoice to which such oath is intended to apply, and shall be subscribed by the party making it and certified by the signature of the person before whom it is made; and the bill of entry shall also contain a statement of the quantity and value for duty of the goods therein mentioned, and shall be signed by the person making the entry, and shall be verified in the form or to the effect of the oath provided for the case in the said schedule.

37. If there be more than one owner, importer, or consignee of any goods, any one of them cognizant of the facts may take the oath required by this Act; and such oath shall be sufficient unless the goods have not been obtained by purchase in the ordinary way, and some owner resident out of Canada is the manufacturer or producer of the goods, or concerned in the manufacture or production thereof,—in which case the oath of such non-resident owner (or one of them, if there be more than one,) cognizant of the facts, shall be requisite to the due attestation of the invoice.

As to any case where there may be more than one owner of goods.

38. The invoice of any goods produced and delivered to the Collector with the bill of entry thereof, under the next preceding section but one, must, if required by the Collector, be attested by the oath of the owner or one of the owners of such goods, and must be verified also by the oath of the importer or consignee or other person who may, under this Act, lawfully make entry of such goods and verify such invoice, if the owner or one of the owners is not the person entering such goods,—and must also, if required by the Collector, be attested by the oath of the non-resident owner being the manufacturer or producer of such goods, in the case mentioned in the next preceding section, although one of the owners be the person entering the goods and verifying the invoice on oath.

Invoice to be attested by one of the owners of such goods—and also by the importer or consignee.

And also by the oath of the non-resident owner, &c.

39. If the owner, importer or consignee of any goods be dead or a bankrupt or insolvent, or if for any cause his personal estate be administered by another person, then his executor, curator, administrator or assignee, or person administering, as aforesaid, may, if cognizant of the facts take any oath and make any entry which such owner, importer or consignee might otherwise have taken or made.

Provision for the death, &c., of the owner, importer or consignee.

40. In any such bill of entry as aforesaid, the person making the same may add such sum to the value stated in the invoice, as will be sufficient to make the value for duty such as it ought to be; and such value shall then, for the purposes of this Act, stand instead of the value as it would appear by the invoice; and no evidence of the value of any goods imported into Canada, or taken out of warehouse for consumption therein, at the place whence and the time when they are to be deemed to have been exported to Canada, contradictory to or at variance with the value stated in the invoice produced to the Collector, with the additions (if any) made to such value by the bill of entry, shall be received in any court in Canada, on the part of any party except the Crown.

Party entering may add to the value by the invoice, so as to give the true value for the duty.

Evidence of the value of goods, &c.

41. The oath required under the six foregoing sections may be made in Canada before the Collector at the port where the goods are entered, or if the person making such oath

Governor in Council may appoint other persons before whom attestation may be made. 2. And the Governor in Council may, from time to time, by regulation, appoint or designate such other and additional persons, officers or functionaries as he sees fit, by name, or by their name of office, and in Canada or out of it, as those before whom such oath may be validly taken, and may, by any Order in Council, relax or dispense with the provisions of this Act touching such oath, in or with regard to goods imported by land or inland navigation, or to any other class of cases to be designated in such regulation :

No person but the owner, &c., to make oath, except in certain cases. 3. No person other than the owner, consignee or importer of the goods of which entry is to be made, shall be allowed to take any oath under the said foregoing sections, unless there be attached to the bill of entry therein referred to, a declaration by the owner, consignee or importer of the said goods, (or his legal representative under section one hundred and thirty-nine of this Act), to the same effect as the oath, (adapting the form and words to the case,) distinctly referring to the invoice presented with such bill of entry, and signed by such owner, importer or consignee, (or his legal representative,) either in presence of the agent making the entry, who shall attest the signature, or of some Justice of the Peace or Notary Public, who shall attest the same; and such declaration shall be kept by the Collector: And for any wilfully false statement in such declaration, the person making the same shall incur the same penalty as if it were made in the oath; but such written declaration may be dispensed with under the order of the Governor in Council, where it may be deemed advisable in the interests of commerce, to dispense therewith:

Proviso.

Governor in Council may alter oaths in schedule, from time to time. 4. The Governor in Council may, by regulation, authorize the alteration of any of the forms of oaths in the schedule to this Act, by abbreviating the same or omitting any of the allegations therein contained which may appear to him unnecessary; and any amended form prescribed by any such regulation, shall be of the same effect as the form in the said schedule for which it is substituted, and shall thereafter be held to be the form referred referred to in this Act; and any such regulation may, from time to time, be repealed or amended as other regulations in matters relating to the Customs.

42. If any person makes, or sends, or brings into Canada, or causes or authorizes the making, sending or bringing into Canada, of any invoice or paper, used or intended to be used as an invoice for Customs purposes, wherein any goods are entered or charged at a less price or value than that actually charged or intended to be charged for them, no price or sum of money shall be recoverable by such person, his assigns or representatives, for the price or on account of the purchase of such goods or any part of them, or on any bill of exchange, note or other security, (unless in the hands of an innocent holder for value without notice,) made, given or executed for the price of or on account of the purchase of such goods or any part of such price; and the production or proof of the existence of any other invoice, account, document or paper made or sent by the same person, or by his authority, wherein the same goods or any of them are charged or entered at or mentioned as bearing a greater price than that set upon them in any such invoice as first above mentioned, shall be prima facie evidence that such first mentioned invoice was intended to be fraudulently used for Customs purposes; but such intention, or the actual fraudulent use of such invoice, may be proved by any other legal evidence.

No person making or authorizing a false invoice of any goods shall recover any part of the price thereof.

Evidence of fraud.

43. The Collectors of Customs, at all the ports in Canada, shall retain and put on file, after duly stamping the same, all invoices of goods imported at such ports respectively,—of which invoices they shall give certified copies or extracts, whenever called upon so to do by the importers; and such copies or extracts so duly certified by the Collector or other proper officer and bearing the stamp of the Custom House at which they are filed, shall be considered and received as authentic; and the Collector shall be entitled to demand for each certificate a fee of fifty cents, before delivering the same.

44. Any Appraiser, or any Collector acting as such (or the merchants to be selected as hereinafter mentioned, to examine and appraise any goods,—if the importer, owner, consignee or agent is dissatisfied with the first appraisement), may call before him or them and examine upon oath any owner, importer, consignee or other person, touching any matter or thing which such Appraiser or Collector deems material in ascertaining the true value of any goods imported, and may require the production on oath of any letters, accounts, invoices or other papers or account books in his possession relating to the same:

2. And if any person so called neglects or refuses to attend, or declines to answer, or refuses to answer in writing (if required) to any interrogatories, or to subscribe his name to his deposition or answer, or to produce any such papers or account books as aforesaid when required so to do, he shall thereby incur a penalty of fifty dollars; and if such person is the owner, importer or consignee of the goods in question, the appraisement which the Appraiser or Collector acting as such shall make thereof shall be final and conclusive:

Penalty for wilfully false evidence.

3. And if any person wilfully swears falsely in any such examination, and he is the owner, importer or consignee of the goods in question, they shall be forfeited; and all depositions or testimony in writing taken under this section, shall be filed in the office of the Collector at the place where the same are made or taken,—there to remain for future use or reference.

Importer dissatisfied with appraisement may appeal in certain cases.

45. If the importer, owner, consignee or agent, having complied with the requirements of this Act, is dissatisfied with the appraisement made, as aforesaid, of any such goods, he may forthwith give notice in writing, to the Collector, of such dissatisfaction,—on the receipt of which notice the Collector shall select two discreet and experienced merchants, familiar with the character and value of the goods in question, to examine and appraise the same, agreeably to the foregoing provisions, and if they disagree the Collector shall decide between them; and the appraisement thus made shall be final and conclusive, and the duty shall be levied accordingly:

Two merchants to be appointed to appraise the goods.

Their appraisement to be final.

Remuneration of such merchants, and by whom paid.

2. The said merchants shall each be entitled to the sum of five dollars,—to be paid by the party dissatisfied with the former appraisement, if the value ascertained by the second appraisement is equal to or greater than that ascertained by such former appraisement, or if the value ascertained by such second appraisement exceeds by ten per cent., or more, the value of the goods for duty, as it would appear by the invoice and bill of entry thereof; otherwise the same shall be paid by the Collector out of any public moneys in his hands, and charged in his accounts:

Penalty for refusing to act.

3. Any merchant chosen to make an appraisement required under this Act, who, after due notice of such choice has been given to him in writing, declines or neglects to make such appraisement, shall, for so refusing or neglecting, incur a penalty of forty dollars and costs.

Additional duty in cases of under-valuation.

46. If in any case the actual value for duty of any goods, as finally determined by the Appraiser or Collector acting as such, or under the next preceding section, in the case therein mentioned, exceeds by twenty per centum, or more more, the value for duty as it would appear by the invoice and bill of entry thereof, then in addition to the duty otherwise payable on such goods, when properly valued, there shall be levied and collected upon the same a further duty equal to one-half of the duty so otherwise payable: And the value of any goods for duty shall never be appraised at less than the value for duty, as it would appear by the invoice and bill of entry.

47. On the entry of any goods, the decision of the Collector of Customs at the port of entry, as to the rate and amount of duties to be paid on such goods, shall be final and conclusive against all persons interested therein, unless the owner, importer, consignee or agent of the goods, do, within ten days after the ascertainment and liquidation of the duties by the proper officers of Customs, and whether the goods are entered in bond or for consumption, give notice in writing to the Collector on each entry, if dissatisfied with his decision, setting forth therein, distinctly and specifically, the grounds of his objection thereto, and do, within thirty days after the date of such ascertainment and liquidation, appeal therefrom to the Minister of Customs, —whose decision on such appeal, or in his absence the decision of any other member of the Executive Council who may be appointed by the Governor in Council for that purpose, shall be final and conclusive; and such goods shall be liable to duty accordingly, unless suit be brought within sixty days after the decision on such appeal, for any duties which shall have been paid before date of such decision, on such goods, or within sixty days after the payment of duties paid after such decision; and no suit shall be maintained in any Court for the recovery of any duties alleged to have been erroneously or illegally exacted, until such decision as last mentioned shall have been first had on such appeal: Provided that such decision shall be given within thirty days after such appeal has been lodged with the Minister of Customs.

(2.) And whereas it is necessary to provide for the payment of the cost of transport of officers and men so called out, and not residing within the municipality in which their services are required ;

And whereas it may be unjust that the municipality should bear the whole expense of preventing or repressing such a riot or disturbance of the peace ;

And whereas the circumstance that the whole of such expense must be borne by the municipality is calculated to hinder the local civil authorities from taking the proper action ;

And whereas it may be just and expedient that some part of such expense should be borne by Canada :

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows :—

1. In any such case as is referred to in the second clause of the preamble, the officers and men called out shall receive from the municipality the reasonable cost of transport in going and returning from and to the place where they reside, to and from the place where their services are required, and such cost may be recovered in like manner as the sums payable by the municipality under the first recited Act.

2. In any such case as is referred to in the third clause of the preamble, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to pay or reimburse out of any moneys which may be provided by Parliament for the purpose, such part as may seem just of the proper expenses incurred by any municipality, by reason of any part of the active militia being called out in aid of the civil power under the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore recited.

Case in which part may be refunded by Canada.

2. An account of any expenditure made under this section shall be laid before Parliament as soon as may be thereafter.

s. 7, to apply to Provincial Railways in

I. The fifteenth and sixteenth subsections of the seventh section of "The Railway Act, 1868," shall extend and apply to a railway incorporated under an Act of a Provincial Legislature, in any case in which it is proposed that such railway shall cross, intersect, join or unite with, or shall be crossed, intersected, joined by, or united with, a railway under the legislative control of Canada.

CHAP. 46.

An Act to authorize the transfer of the Truro and Pictou Branch of the Intercolonial Railway to the person or Company constructing a line of Railway from New Glasgow to the Strait of Canso, and providing a proper ferry across the Strait.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

Preamble.

Resolution
H. C. 19th
May, 1874.

Negotiations
under it.

WHEREAS, by resolution of the House of Commons, passed on the nineteenth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, it was resolved: "That the Government be authorized to negotiate during the Parliamentary recess for the transfer of the railway from Truro to Pictou to some organized company, on condition that such company will extend the said railway from New Glasgow, or Pictou, to the Gut of Canso, or some place in Cape Breton, within a specified time,—such transfer to be subject to the approval of Parliament at the next Session;" And whereas, although negotiations had taken place between the Dominion Government and parties interested in the railway system of Cape Breton, and although the Government of Nova Scotia had obtained legislative authority for the payment of a certain bonus to any company which should construct such line, the Dominion Government had not received any definite offer from any company, or individuals, which could possibly secure the extension of the railway railway system from the neighborhood of New Glasgow to any place in Cape Breton; and whereas an offer was received from Messrs. E. R. Burpee and Company, representing the Eastern Counties Railway Company, to undertake the construction of a line of railway as far as the Strait of Canso, on condition of the transfer to such company of the Truro and Pictou branch of the Government railways, under the resolution of the House of Commons of the nineteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. And whereas an Order of the Governor in Council was passed on the seventh day of February, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, authorizing notice to be sent to the Government of Nova Scotia that the Dominion Government would be prepared to submit a proposition to Parliament for the transfer of the Truro and Pictou Branch Railway to a company undertaking the construction of a line in extension thereof to the Strait of Canso, and from thence to West Bay, at the head of Bras d'Or Lake, including a steam ferry across the strait,—the other conditions being, that such company should be bound to give running powers over its road, from the Strait of Canso to New Glasgow, to any other company extending a railway eastward to Louisbourg, or any other port, upon terms to be determined by mutual agreement, or in case of non-agreement to be determined by arbitration,—and further, that such company should give such other railway company running powers over the Pictou and Truro branch on certain specified conditions; And whereas the Government of Nova Scotia, apprehending that it would be found difficult to get any company to undertake the extension eastward from New Glasgow, subject to a condition requiring the construction of any portion of railway east of the Strait of Canso, proposed that the transfer of the Pictou Branch should be made on condition of the construction of the said extension eastward to the Strait of Canso only, with a steam ferry across the strait, if the extension further east to a point or points on the Bras d'Or Lake, could not be obtained; And whereas the Dominion Government, in view of the very great importance of the early construction of a railway to the strait at least, modified their previous decision of the seventh February, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, by an Order of the Governor in Council of the fifteenth March, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, so as to authorize the transfer of the Pictou branch to any company which should construct a line of railway from New Glasgow to the Strait of Canso, and maintain a steam ferry across the strait, if it should be found impossible to make arrangements for extension further east, the absolute condition that the line should be carried from the Strait of Canso to West Bay on Bras d'Or Lake being withdrawn, but the other part of the arrangement for giving running powers to any company so extending the railway eastward in Cape Breton being retained; And whereas the Government of Nova Scotia, having been notified of the facts aforesaid, called for tenders for the construction of a railway from New Glasgow to the Strait of Canso, (a distance of seventy-five miles,) with a steam ferry across the Strait, and thence to a point on the Bras d'Or Lake, not exceeding thirty-five miles in length, it being left optional, however, to parties to tender either for the whole of the said work, or only for the section from New Glasgow to Canso, but, in either case, to include the ferry; And whereas the Government of the Dominion was advised by the Nova Scotia Government that they had accepted the tender of Mr. H. Abbott, representing the Halifax and Cape Breton Railway and Coal Company (a company incorporated under an Act of the Legislature of the Province of Nova Scotia,) for the construction of that section only of the railway from New Glasgow to the Strait of Canso, with a steam ferry across the strait, on condition of receiving a subsidy of the sum of seven thousand nine hundred and forty-five dollars per mile, in addition to other subventions mentioned in the advertisement,—one of which is the transfer as a bonus of the Truro and Pictou branch to the said company, and that the said company required, as a condition of entering into the contract, immediate possession of the Truro and Pictou branch, with a view of availing themselves of its possession to secure the means for proceeding with the extension, and that the said company had made certain proposals which were ultimately embodied in a Minute of Council of the Government of Nova Scotia of the eighth of September last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six), with a view of obtaining possession of the said Truro and Pictou branch on the first of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven; And whereas, after having carefully considered the whole matter, the Government of the Dominion, by an Order of the Governor in Council made on the ninth of November, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, on the report of the Minister of Public Works, modified the terms of the Orders in Council of the seventh of February and fifteenth of March, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, by withdrawing the condition in respect of the grant of running powers to any company extending the line easterly, the whole subject to the approval of Parliament; And whereas it is expedient to approve and give effect to the agreements and arrangements aforesaid: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The Pictou and Truro Branch Railway including sufficient land for the purposes thereof, and the stations and buildings thereon necessary for the use of the railway, but without any of the rolling stock, shall be transferred absolutely to the person or company constructing the line from New Glasgow to the Strait of Canso, and providing a proper steam ferry across the strait, as soon as such railway is constructed, with proper rolling stock and other appurtenances, and such ferry provided to the satisfaction of the Minister of Public Works.

2. Temporary possession of the said branch railway shall be given to the person or company with whom the Nova Scotia Government shall have contracted for the construction of the eastern extension from New Glasgow to the Strait of Canso, and the establishment of the said steam ferry, as soon as such person or company shall have expended a sum of not less than four hundred thousand dollars upon such work to the satisfaction of the Minister of Public Works; subject to the resumption of the said branch line at any time by the Dominion Government, in case the contractor does not, in the opinion of the Minister of Public Works, keep the said branch railway and its appurtenances in as good repair as it shall be at the time of the delivery of possession; or, in case the construction of the proposed railway is not, in the opinion of the Minister of Public Works, prosecuted by such contractor with due diligence; or, in case the contractor fails, in the opinion of the Minister of Public Works, to provide the requisite rolling stock, or to work the branch line efficiently: and, on the further consideration that, in case of such resumption, the contractor shall, forthwith, restore the possession of the said branch railway and its appurtenances in as good repair as they were at the time of the delivery of possession, and shall, forthwith, pay to Her Majesty, for the public uses of Canada, the amount of the net earnings of the branch line during such temporary possession,—for which payment, and for the faithful performance of all the conditions aforesaid of such temporary possession, and the payment of all damages resulting from any failure to perform the same or any of them, the contractor, before the delivery of such temporary possession, shall give security to the satisfaction of the Minister of Public Works.

Temporary possession on certain conditions.

Resumption in case of failure to perform conditions.

Repayment of earnings in such case.

Security to be given.

3. The arrangement for the absolute transfer of the said Pictou and Truro Branch to the contractor shall be terminable and possession thereof may be forthwith resumed by the Dominion Government, in case, in the opinion of the Minister of Public Works, the contractor fails to execute the contract with the Government of Nova Scotia, or to fulfil the conditions of the temporary possession of the said branch railway.

Arrangement for absolute transfer to be void on such failure.

SCHEDULE.

On the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, before me, Louis Napoléon Dumouchel, Notary Public, of the Province of Quebec, in the Dominion of Canada, residing and practising in the City and District of Montreal, undersigned,

Came and appeared "La Banque Jacques Cartier," a body politic and corporate, having its office and place of business in the City of Montreal, represented and acting in these presents by its President, the Honorable Jean Louis Beaudry, and by Alphonse Desjardins, Esquire, one of the Directors thereof, both of Montreal, here present, duly authorized thereto by a resolution adopted by the new Board of Directors of the said bank at a meeting held at Montreal on the eleventh day of January last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six) at the ordinary place of meeting, and of which a certified copy is annexed to these presents, as part thereof and for reference in case of need,

Parties of the first part,

And Messieurs Romuald Trudeau, Charles Séraphin Rodier, junior, Jean Baptiste Beaudry, Louis Joseph Béliveau, Paul Médard Galarneau, John L. Cassidy, Nazaire Villeneuve, André Lapierre and Victor Hudon; all the before-named residing in the said City of Montreal and forming in its its entirety the late Board of Directors of the said bank, herein designated as "the late Directors,"

Parties of the second part,

Who in the first instance set forth :—

That at a general meeting of the shareholders of the said bank, held on the thirty-first day of August and the first day of September last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five), certain shareholders having charged the late Directors with not having used due diligence in the administration of the affairs of the said bank during the period of their management, the latter, although convinced of having always acted in good faith and of having used the diligence required by custom and by law, and seeing that in their own interest as well as that of the bank it was advisable to avoid all differences and unite their common forces to re-establish the said bank, have, without admitting any responsibility, but as a compromise, offered to the said shareholders to relinquish in favor of the said bank two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of paid-up shares in the capital stock thereof, on condition that they should be released from all responsibility by reason of their management and administration as Directors up to the fifteenth of June last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five) ;

That shareholders, proprietors to the amount of nine hundred and fifty-seven thousand nine hundred dollars of shares in the capital stock of the said bank, and constituting an absolute majority of the shareholders, have accepted the offer thus made by the said late Directors, and have renounced all claims they may have had against the latter by reason of their management and administration : Provided always, that the before-mentioned sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of paid-up shares were transferred within four months to the said bank, and sold for the common benefit of the shareholders (to the exclusion of the said late Directors), and proportionately at the expense of each of them ;

That in order to give effect to the offer thus made by the said late Directors, the latter did, on the fourth day of January last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six), transfer to Jacques Grenier, Esquire, merchant, of Montreal, in trust, the above-mentioned amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of paid-up shares, subject to the order of the new Board of Directors, who were empowered to sell them and distribute the proceeds in accordance with the expressed desire of the said majority of shareholders, always, however, on the condition that the said bank should release the said late Directors from all claims that they might have and claim to have against them by reason of their management and administration as aforesaid ;

That on the fourth of January last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six), the said late Directors duly notified

the President of the said bank of such transfer so made to the said Jacques Grenier ;

That on the eleventh day of the same month of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, by virtue of the resolution above mentioned, adopted at a meeting of the new Board of Directors, it was resolved to accept the said transfer on the conditions above mentioned ;

Wherefore the said bank, represented and acting as aforesaid, has approved and ratified, as by these presents it does approve and ratify, for all purposes whatsoever, the said transfer of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of paid-up shares to the said Jacques Grenier, in trust, wishing and intending that it may be proceeded with and executed according to its form and tenor, under the provisions, clauses and conditions proposed by the said late Directors, and for the ends above mentioned ; the said bank releasing the latter from all claims that it may have against them by reason of their management and administration as such, up to the fifteenth of June last (one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five), and further binding itself to hold them indemnified from all responsibility they may have incurred by reason of any of the acts of such management and administration.

Whereof acte.

Made and passed in the City of Montreal, under the number two thousand eight hundred and twenty-six of the roll of the undersigned Notary, who keeps these presents in his minutes.

And, after reading, the parties have signed these presents with the said Notary.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Banque Jacques Cartier, held at Montreal on the eleventh January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the meeting hall of the said bank ;

On motion of the Honorable Louis Archambault, seconded by Mr. Alphonse Desjardins, it was unanimously resolved :—

That whereas MM. Charles Séraphin Rodier, junior, Jean Baptiste Beaudry, Louis Joseph Béliveau, Victor Hudon, Paul Médard Galarneau, Nazaire Villeneuve, Romuald Trudeau, André Lapierre and John L. Cassidy, of Montreal, Directors of the Banque Jacques Cartier at the time of its suspension on the fifteenth Juné last, have made, in favor of the bank, to Mr. Jacques Grenier, merchant, of Montreal, a transfer of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of paid-up stock in the capital of the said institution, subject to the order of this Board of Directors, who are empowered to sell the same in order to distribute the proceeds of such sale among the shareholders (excluding the late Directors), upon the express condition that this bank releases them from all claims which it may claim to have against them in consequence of their administration and management as the Directors thereof until the fifteenth June last, and holds them harmless of all responsibility which they may have incurred in consequence of any act in connection with such administration and management, as this Board of Directors has been informed by a letter from those gentlemen, dated the fourth January instant, addressed to the President of the bank, and also by a letter from Mr. Jacques Grenier, bearing the same date, and likewise addressed to the President ;

That whereas the said transfer was made to carry out an offer made by the said late Directors to the shareholders, and whereas that offer was accepted by the majority of the shareholders (deducting the shares held by the late Directors), that is to say, by a majority in number of the shareholders (say two hundred and eighty-three out of four hundred and seventy-six shareholders), holders of eighteen thousand five hundred shares, representing nine hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars of the capital stock, as is established by the signature of the said shareholders :

This Board of Directors is of opinion that it is in the interest of this bank as well as in that of the shareholders, to comply with the wishes of the majority of the shareholders by approving the transfer which the said late Directors have made in favor of the bank, upon the condition of their being granted a release as aforesaid ;

Wherefore the bank approves the transfer made to Mr. Jacques Grenier, to all intents whatsoever, declares its intention of availing itself thereof upon the conditions expressed by the majority of the shareholders, and releases the said Messrs. Charles Séraphin Rodier, junior, Jean Baptiste Beaudry, Louis Joseph Béliveau, Victor Hudon, Paul Médard Galarneau, Nazaire Villeneuve, Romuald Trudeau, André Lapierre, and John Louis Cassidy, from all claim which the bank may have against them in consequence of their administration and management as Directors of the Banque Jacques Cartier, up to and until the fifteenth day of June last, and binds itself to them to hold them harmless of all responsibility which they may have incurred in consequence of any of the acts of such administration and management.

Mr. Jean Louis Beaudry, President of the bank, and Mr. Alphonse Desjardins, one of the Directors thereof, are authorized to make and sign, in the name of the bank, all deeds necessary to carry this present resolution into full and entire effect.

President.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Metropolitan Bank, by its petition, has represented that it has met with heavy losses, and that its shareholders have determined that it is for their interest that the said Bank should be wound up, and has prayed for authority so to do; and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

CHAP. 57.

An Act respecting the Northern Railway Company of Canada.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Canada, being chapter twenty-three of the Statutes passed by that Parliament in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, provision was made for the discharge of the lien of the Dominion of Canada amounting to four hundred and seventy-five thousand pounds sterling, on the Railway and undertaking of the Northern Railway Company of Canada hereinafter called the Company, upon certain conditions and certain payments to be made by the Company ;

Preamble.
Recital of case, 38 V., c. 23.

And whereas, by another Act of the said Parliament, being chapter sixty-five of the Statutes passed in the thirty-eighth year of Her said Majesty, it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Company and the Northern Extension Railways Company, hereinafter called the Extension Company, at any time after the passing of the Act to enter into an agreement for amalgamation upon such terms, conditions and stipulations as might be therein set forth, sealed with their respective common seals, and approved in general meetings of the respective Companies as therein mentioned, but so that such agreement should contain provisions to the effect in the Act set forth ; and it was thereby provided that after such amalgamation the Company might advance and expend such sum of money as might be necessary for completing the line and works of the Extension Company from Severn River Bridge to Gravenhurst, and for such other services as the Extension Company might, before such amalgamation, have legally performed under their charter ;

38 V., c. 65.

And whereas the conditions and payments by the said first-recited Act, required to be performed and made for the purpose of discharging the lien of the Dominion, have been duly performed and made by the Company, and the said lien has been discharged accordingly ;

And whereas the amalgamation of the Company and the Extension Company, authorized by the said secondly recited Act, has been duly carried into effect by an agreement for amalgamation dated the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, under the respective common seals of the Companies, and approved by the general meetings of the respective Companies, as required by the said secondly recited Act ;

(a) First preference bonds to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling ;

(b) Second preference bonds to the amount of two hundred and eighty-three thousand nine hundred pounds sterling ;

(c) Class A., third preference bonds to the amount of fifty thousand pounds sterling, in bonds of one hundred pounds sterling each ;

(d) Class B., third preference bonds to the amount of one hundred thousand pounds sterling ;

And of the following particulars constituting the loan capital of the Extension Company at the date of the said amalgamation, that is to say :—

(g) First mortgage bonds to the amount of one hundred and thirty-three thousand pounds sterling ;

(h) Improvement mortgage bonds to the amount of forty-four thousand four hundred pounds sterling ;

(i) Town bonds, three thousand four hundred pounds sterling ;

And whereas the aforesaid sum of four hundred thousand pounds, preferential stock, was created by the said secondly recited Act,—as to three hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling, part thereof, for the purpose of raising the money necessary for discharging the Government lien, and subject thereto for the general purposes of the Company,—and as to fifty thousand pounds sterling, the residue thereof, for the purposes of the said amalgamation, and so far as not required for that purpose, for any object within the charters of either of the amalgamated Companies ;

And whereas the Company are indebted in considerable sums for money in part borrowed for and applied in discharge charge of the said Government lien, and now owing on the security of preferential stock created by the said secondly recited Act, and in part borrowed for and applied towards the construction of the works authorised by the same Act, and now owing on the security of certificates of indebtedness under the common seal of the Company, for which and other sums borrowed it is necessary that provision should be made ;

And whereas it is expedient that the prayer of the said petition should be granted to the extent and in manner hereinafter appearing :

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows :—

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in the thirty-fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-one, intituled "An Act to incorporate the Detroit River Railway Bridge Company," certain persons were incorporated under the name of "The Detroit River Railway Bridge Company" with the power and subject to the provisions contained in the said Act and (amongst others) with power to unite and consolidate its stock, property and franchises with the stock, property and franchises of "The Detroit River Railroad and Bridge Company," a company incorporated by the laws of the State of Michigan for a similar purpose; And whereas the said "The Detroit River Railway Bridge Company" was authorized by the said Act to construct and work a railway bridge across the Detroit River, for railway purposes, from some point at or near the town of Amherstburg, in the County of Essex and Province of Ontario, towards the Island of Grosse Isle, in the State of Michigan, in the United States of America; And whereas, by a certain other Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed in the thirty-sixth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, the name of the said Company was changed to "The Detroit River Railway Bridge and Tunnel Company," and the Company was authorized at their option to construct and work a tunnel under the River Detroit for railway purposes instead of a railway bridge at the point mentioned in the first recited Act; And whereas by an agreement dated the twentieth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, between the said "The Detroit River Railway Bridge and Tunnel Company" and the said "The Detroit River Railroad and Bridge Company," and the proceedings prior to and consequent thereon, the said two companies became and are united and consolidated into one company and incorporated under the name of "The Canada Southern Bridge Company," with all the power and subject to the provisions of the said recited Acts; And whereas the Canada Southern Bridge Company immediately thereupon commenced the construction of certain of the works authorized under its corporate powers and has completed and for a period of three years has had in operation all the works consisting of lines of railway, railway bridges and appliances necessary for crossing the River Detroit at the point hereinbefore mentioned, towards and upon Grosse Isle and across the same and over the western channel of the River Detroit to the main shore of the State of Michigan, excepting the railway bridge or tunnel for the crossing of the main channel of the River Detroit from near the said town of Amherstburg towards Stoney Island, an island between Grosse Isle and the said main channel; And whereas the said Canada Southern Bridge Company has expended the sum of one million four hundred and fifty thousand dollars and upwards in the construction of the said works, and has raised a large part thereof by the sale of first mortgage bonds secured upon the said works and property of the Company; And whereas the present means, by a car ferry steamer, of transporting the traffic of the Canada Southern and other connecting railways across the main channel of the River Detroit at the part aforesaid are inadequate to such traffic and liable to interruption by ice and otherwise; And whereas it has been found that a tunnel under the said channel can be advantageously constructed, and the plans and specifications for such work have been prepared; and the Company have petitioned for an extension of the time limited for the completion of the said work, and for the continuance of all its corporate powers under the said recited Acts and agreement of union, except in so far as the same may authorize or imply any authority to construct or work any railway bridge across the said main channel of the River Detroit,—as to which bridge the Company is willing that any authority in respect thereof should be withdrawn: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The Canada Southern Bridge Company is hereby authorized to construct, maintain, work and manage a tunnel under the River Detroit from a point in the Township of Anderdon, in the County of Essex, at or near the town of Amherstburg, towards Grosse Isle in the State of Michigan, with all the rights and powers and subject to all the provisions and conditions contained in the said recited Acts or either of them, and subject also to the same rights and privileges of all railways and railway companies, desiring to use the said tunnel for their trains or traffic, as are enacted and secured by the said recited Acts or either of them to all railways and railway companies as to the use of a railway bridge for railway purposes, if the powers contained in the said Acts were exercised in the construction of such bridge;

CHAP. 81.

An Act to incorporate "La Société de Construction St. Jacques" as a Permanent Building Society, and for other purposes.

[Assented to 28th April, 1877.]

Preamble.
Con. Stat.,
L.C., c. 69.

WHEREAS La Société de Construction St. Jacques, incorporated under the provisions of the Act chapter sixty-nine of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, has existed in the City of Montreal since the month of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; whereas the present subscribed capital of the said society is three million five hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars, and the amount paid thereon is about two hundred and four thousand dollars; and whereas its existence on a solid and durable basis is of great interest to all its shareholders; and whereas the said Society has, by the petition of its President and Directors, prayed for certain powers and changes which would greatly contribute to its prosperity and to the security of persons holding shares therein and of the public with whom its business is transacted; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Corporation
continued.

1. The said Société de Construction St. Jacques and all its present members, their successors and assigns for ever, are hereby constituted a corporation and permanent building society under the name of La Société de Construction St. Jacques, having its principal place of business or office in the City of Montreal, and may, by that name, sue and be sued, and shall enjoy all the rights, powers and privileges granted to permanent building societies by the Act chapter sixty-nine of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada and by all other Acts affecting such societies, and shall be held to all the duties and obligations imposed on such societies by the said Acts.

Rights and powers.

Property, &c.
vested in Society.

2. All movable and immovable property, shares or stock, obligations, debts, rights, claims and privileges generally whatsoever of the said La Société de Construction St. Jacques, shall continue vested in the said Society incorporated as a permanent building society as aforesaid, under its said name, and shall continue to be held and maintained by or against the said Society and belong to it to all intents and purposes, as if this Act had not been passed; and all proceedings commenced by the said Society may be continued without any change whatsoever.

3. The President, Directors and officers of the said La Société de Construction St. Jacques, now in office shall ^{Officers continued.} so continue in the said Society, until replaced in conformity with the by-laws of the Society.

2. The present by-laws of the said Society, which are in ^{And by-laws.} conformity with the law, shall continue in force until modified, amended or repealed by the said Society.

4. And whereas, under the system hitherto followed in ^{Recital.} the said Society, the capital thereof consisted of the whole amount of the shares subscribed for by its shareholders, and such capital was to be advanced by appropriation from time to time, during the existence of the Society, to shareholders holding the winning number at a drawing of lots to be carried out under the supervision of the Board of Directors of the Society, or whose number obtained at a bidding the privilege of appropriation; and whereas under the aforesaid system of appropriation a certain number of shareholders have already received in advance the amount of their shares, and consequently the said shareholders are bound to repay in full the amounts so by them received, less what they may have previously paid up on their said shares, and consequently the said shares cannot now be reduced, unless with the consent of such shareholders and by providing a new and special means for the discharge of the obligations of such borrowing members towards the Society, it is further enacted: that the capital stock of the said Society subscribed for by shareholders who have received no appropriations, shall be reduced to ten per centum of the amount by them so subscribed; and the capital subscribed by borrowing shareholders shall remain at the full amount of the original subscription. Non-borrowing shareholders, that is to say, those who have not received appropriations shall be bound to complete the said amount of ten per centum on the total of the shares by them originally subscribed for, by paying to the Society such an amount as may be requisite to form such ten per centum, with what they have already paid, in instalments not exceeding ten per centum of the balance by them so owing, and payable at such periods as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Directors: Provided that such instalments shall not be payable at shorter intervals than one month. Borrowing shareholders shall continue to make their payments in the same manner and on the same terms and at the same periods as set forth in their obligations entered into with the Society, until such time as each and all of their said obligations shall have been completely and entirely satisfied and fulfilled. Nevertheless the Directors of the Society may make such arrangements with such borrowing shareholders as they shall think proper, to convert into an obligation to pay a fixed sum agreed upon and determined between them

How the capital stock of the Society shall be constituted hereafter.

5. The capital stock of the Society, reduced as hereinbefore enacted, shall be and form the permanent capital stock of the said Society, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and each share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote; but no shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any meeting unless he shall have paid all the calls upon all the shares held by him.

Increase of capital and temporary shares.

6. The said Society may, by a resolution of the Directors confirmed at a general meeting of the shareholders, increase its permanent capital, and may, as often as it thinks proper, open classes of temporary shares; and nothing in this Act shall operate to deprive the Society in that respect of any rights and privileges conferred by general Acts affecting such societies.

Conversion of temporary shares.

7. Any member of the Society may, at his option at any time, and in manner to be regulated by the Directors, convert his temporary shares into fixed and permanent shares in the stock of the Society either before or after the same shall have been fully paid up.

Prior claim of Society in respect of shares.

8. All shares, whether permanent or temporary, in the said Society, and all profits thereon shall be, specially and by prior privilege to any other creditors, charged with and liable for any claims the Society may have against the proprietors of such shares; and the same may be retained and confiscated by the Society to an amount equal to the sum in arrear, if the shareholder indebted to the Society fails to discharge his debt or obligation within twelve months after the same shall have matured. The shares of the said Society may also be seized and sold in the same manner as shares in bank stock, and with the same formalities as in like cases.

Seizure of shares as of bank stock.

Investment of funds.

9. The system of appropriations hitherto followed in the said Society shall be totally discontinued, and the said Society may invest its moneys in any real security, or in the public securities of the Dominion, or of any of the Provinces thereof, or on the security of debentures of any municipal or other corporations. The Society may also accept in addition to such hypothecary securities, any personal or other security offered as collateral security for loans made by the Society.

Collateral security.

10. The Society shall have power to make, alter, repeal and re-enact from time to time by-laws for the regulation of its business, by a majority of two thirds of the votes of its members present in person or represented by proxy at a general meeting of the members of the Society held for that purpose, at the call of the President or of three Directors, by public notice inserted in two newspapers, published in the City of Montreal,—one in the French language and the other in the English language, three times a week for two consecutive weeks, before the day of the said meeting. And at such meeting and at all other meetings of the members of the Society the members shall vote in the manner provided by this Act and by the by-laws of the Society.

11. The Directors of the Society may, each year, at the period of the division of profits, reserve out of the profits of the permanent capital, a certain sum not to exceed two per centum of the amount of such capital, when the net profits do not exceed ten per centum, and at their discretion if the profits exceed ten per centum; which sum shall form the permanent reserve fund of the Society and shall be set apart to meet all losses or extraordinary or unforeseen expenditure incurred by the Society, the responsibility of which devolves on the permanent shareholders.
